MEIGHEN GOES TO EMPIRE CONFERENCE

Advocates Overseas Representatives in Capital of Empire

Imperial Parliament Impossible Dream, But Separate Nations of Empire Should Be In Touch With British Government Constantly, Mr. Lowther Declares; Dominions Must Advance Proposals, He Says.

An Imperial Parliament, formed of representatives from all parts of the British Empire is a dream impossible of realization at present, but the separate nations which compose the Empire should have representatives at London to keep in constant touch with the British Cabinet, Mr. Hon. J. W. Lowther, former Speaker of the British House of Commons, urged in an impressive speech before the Canadian Club in the Empress Hotel at noon to-day.

Mr. Lowther declared that Britain had absolutely no wish to force any form of imperial organization on the Dominions—nor could she do so; but he felt that a closer legislative union between the members of the Empire in the future was essential. Any such proposals, however, must come from the Dominions and not from the Mother Country, he asserted. While some scheme such as he had outlined was very necessary, Mr. Lowther warned the Dominions to be careful in amending the imperial relationship which existed at present, and he expressed the hope that the present bonds which held the Empire together would survive without any changes.

Empire problems were vital, but direction was even more important, he affirmed.

Introduces Speaker.

"To have presided over the British House of Commons at all is a rare distinction, but to have presided over that body sixteen years ago as guest has been an experience probably unequalled," President B. C. Nicholas declared in introducing the speaker.

"During this time, unprecedented events have occurred. He has seen great parties founded and dissolved; the period of the Great War, when all sorts of political combinations, which seemed before impossible, came into existence, and last he has seen the advent of a representative of womanhood in the House of Commons. He has seen his office with the affectionate regard of all parties, for during all the years of his speakership he has been the personification of fairness."

Against Long Speeches.

"When I reached Canada I was advised to keep silent in two languages—but like much very good advice, it is impossible to follow," Mr. Lowther commenced. "But you must not take me as an example of an English politician—if I had been I would never have been Speaker of the House of Commons. During all the years I presided over the House I have never made a speech over one-quarter as long as that I have already made here to-day. Indeed, I suppose your chief interest in seeing me is to hear a dumb man speak. I am no longer Speaker with his 'S' and 'I' am not even a speaker with a small 's'."

The Replica at Ottawa.

"When I stepped down from the Speaker's chair in April, I expected never to see it again, but when I got to Ottawa, behold there it was again—a perfect replica of the chair in the British House. It would seem that I can't get away from the Speaker's chair. I am here for no propaganda purpose, nor in search of the Almighty Dollar. I came to Canada to present to you the Speaker's chair and see your beautiful country. I take it, therefore, that your invitation that I should address you to-day is a compliment to the House of Commons rather than to myself."

The House's Place.

"The House of Commons holds a place in the heart of every Britisher. To criticism directed against the House of Commons is to criticize the heart of the British people."

NEW SCHEME FOR PACKING HOUSES

Government Control Suggested in South America

Montevideo, Uruguay, June 5.—A proposal that the Governments of Uruguay, Argentina, Brazil and Paraguay take over by appropriation the packing houses in the several countries has been made by a committee of the Uruguayan House of Representatives.

Most of the packing houses in these countries are controlled by foreign capital, a large part of which is North American. It is estimated that the total cost of such an undertaking would be over $100,000,000, and that the cost in Uruguay alone would be $22,000,000.

The committee recommended that a convention of delegates of the four South American countries be held to arrange joint action, and suggested the issuance of domestic and foreign loans to raise the funds necessary to acquire the packing houses.

It is proposed by the committee that the establishments be placed under the control of directors comprising cattle men and Government officials in the respective countries. Another directorate would be formed of Government representatives who would control the marketing of the products abroad and fix prices, acting jointly in all of the four nations.

BOY INTOXICATED; CASE OF SPITE

St. John, N. E., June 6.—A lad fifteen years of age was taken into custody here in an intoxicated condition. Investigation led the police to believe that the boy was given brandy by a woman who had a grudge against the lad's family.

WILLIAM CROOKS DIED IN LONDON

Was Labor M.P. For Nearly Twenty Years

London, June 6.—Sir Hon. William Crooks, who served as a Labor member of Parliament nearly twenty years, died yesterday.

Will Crooks, as he was affectionately known, became one of the leaders in the great labor movement and one of the dominant figures in the United Kingdom. He was born in Portland, in the East End of London, in 1857, and started work when only nine years of age. His father had been injured when the boy was scarcely more than a baby, and the family was forced to move to the workhouse. But at the age of nine the boy picked up odd jobs about the docks and was soon supporting his mother.

In 1866 he became apprenticed to a cooper, learned the trade and took out his first union card. In the dock strike of 1889 he showed marked ability in the work of organization, and from then on took an active part in public affairs.

Mayor.

Having started as a walf of the slums, he became Mayor of Poplar and a member of Parliament in 1913. It was said of Will Crooks that no one ever doubted his word, and that his promise was unbreakable. He was the friend of the poorest, and never forsook his cockney friends or altered his Cockney mannerisms. Among his warm friends he numbered all the Prime Ministers of the Dominions and King George himself. The constant strain of the war shattered his health as it did that of many another man engaged at home in building up the armies and increasing the production for the supply of the armies. And finally, in 1917, he witnessed the killing of many little children in a school in Poplar by a bomb from a German aeroplane, from the shock of which he never recovered.

He was forced to resign his seat in the House of Commons early this year, and he was succeeded as the representative of Poplar by Captain Gee, a Coalitionist, who was elected over the former chairman of the Labor Party, James Ramsay MacDonald.

Mr. Crooks was in Canada a number of years ago. He passed through Victoria on his way to Australia.

Red Cross Drive Opened To-day With Enthusiasm

To-day's Summer showers in no way affected the opening of the big Red Cross campaign for membership, but rather tended to increase the enthusiasm and zeal of the veritable army of canvassers who this morning set out upon a concerted attack of the residential and business sections of the city and greater Victoria. Directed from the headquarters at Belmont House, the campaign at noon to-day was progressing with excellent results and while it was impossible at that hour to reach all the canvassers in the outlying districts, sufficient reports had been received to suggest that the success of the week's campaign is assured.

In the business section the canvassers were at work as soon as stores and offices were open. Evidence of the cordial reception accorded to them is shown by the result of their call at the Canadian Bank of Commerce, which was visited before ten o'clock. Sixty-five

PROMINENT MAN IN JAPAN WILL BE PROSECUTED

Tokio, June 5.—(Associated Press.)—A national section has been created by the decision of Department of Justice to institute criminal proceedings against S. Makamishi, a prominent member of the opposition party, for alleged breach of trust in the conduct of the South Manchuria Railway, of which he is vice-president, the charges against him being based on the purchase of railway supplies, including a colliery.

Common School First, Premier Replies to University Demands

$100,000 a Month Asked From Province to Complete Vancouver Institution; Government to Consider Kiwanis' Proposals.

Completion of the University of British Columbia at Point Grey by an expenditure of $100,000 a month for the next twelve months was urged on Premier Oliver and members of his Cabinet to-day by Vancouver Kiwanians headed by Dr. H. W. Riggs and supported by representatives of other public organizations.

Dr. Riggs explained that plans formulated by the Kiwanis Club cover only the essentials needed for the University at present and represent a big cut from the $3,000,000 original plans got out before the war.

SIR SAM HUGHES BACK IN LINDSAY

Lindsay, Ont., June 6.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes, who has been ill for some time, has returned from Ottawa to his home here. There has been quite an improvement in his condition.

KITCHENER BOARD OF TRADE DIES

Kitchener, Ont., June 6.—After forty years of activity and usefulness, the Kitchener Board of Trade has gone out of existence. Lack of interest of late caused the officers to give up the struggle to keep the board alive.

SAYS NEWFOUNDLAND HAS BEEN LABELLED

Editor Denies Economic Situation Very Bad

St. John's, Nfld., June 5.—The statement that stories which have appeared in some American and Canadian papers indicating that the economic situation in Newfoundland is particularly bad are more fiction than fact is made by Dr. H. M. Mosdell, editor of the St. John's Daily Star.

"There is no serious unemployment in this city and there is no more up employment throughout Newfoundland generally than is usual at this time of year," he writes. "Newfoundland fishermen, tradesmen and workmen are better situated and have better savings accounts than similar classes in any other part of the world." He declares that the whole island of Newfoundland is seething with anger because of the attitude toward this country of the Dominion and American press. Dr. Mosdell lays continued misrepresentation of conditions in Newfoundland to the account of opposition members of the Island Government, chiefly Sir Patrick McGrath, Sir Michael Cashin, Sir John Crosby and Alfred B. Morine. "Manifestly," he says, "foreign newspapers and agencies have been persistently exploited by the Opposition in an effort to discredit the Newfoundland Government and to hamper its undertakings."

No Demonstration.

Dr. Mosdell denies specifically the authenticity of an article recently carried by newspapers of the United States.

BIG REINDEER RESERVES IN NORTH BEING PLANNED

Ottawa, June 6.—That the Government intended to take action on the report of the Royal Commission which investigated the possibilities of reindeer and musk-ox raising in Northern Canada was intimated in the House Saturday by Premier Meighen.

Reservation of certain lands as reserves was being contemplated, he said.

CANADIAN AS GOVERNOR-GENERAL

English Paper Says Canadians Discussing Change Talking of Altering Traditional System

London, June 6.—The Manchester Guardian, commenting that purely social and aristocratic appointments to the post of Governor-General of Canada are nowadays at a discount and that among the Dominions Canada in particular is talking with growing eagerness about choosing Lord Byng for the post from among her own citizens, observes that the Dominion of Canada is in a case where a man who has earned something and who has earned something rather than a man who has only inherited something, is given the appointment.

The solution of the Governor-Generalship, it continues, to which the Dominions are tending will no doubt come before long, but in the meantime the Guardian says it raises awkward constitutional issues that have not yet been solved. Lord Byng, in the opinion of this newspaper, is a good choice to tide over the period of change.

SAYS COST OF CIVIL SERVICE INCREASED

Senator Fowler Makes Attack on Commission

Ottawa, June 6.—(Canadian Press.)—A vigorous attack on the Civil Service Commission and the present system of public service appointments by Senator G. W. Fowler, delivered the closing speech of the Senate on Saturday.

Senator Fowler, speaking on the amendments to the Civil Service Act, said social uplifters had been responsible for the alleged civil service reform. The Civil Service Commission had increased the cost of civil government in Canada. In the last ten years the cost of government had grown from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 a year.

Refuse Money For Essentials.

"I think the first essential of education is the common school, which should be available for everyone," said Premier Oliver in his reply to the delegation. "We have had instances of the ratepayers of different municipalities refusing their consent to spending money for this common education."

Finances at Bottom.

"All I can assure you this morning is that the Government will take into most serious and early consideration the proposals you have put before them. They will examine the details minutely and will do their best to solve them together with some other things that are coming before them. That is all we can promise you this morning."

The Premier said that there were strong indications of public support for the Government's proposals.

"But it all comes down to finances," he said. "From all sides we have complaints of lack of Government support for this scheme or that scheme."

LAURA BROMWELL, AVIATRICE, KILLED

U. S. Woman Held Loop-the-Loop Record

Minneapolis, N. Y., June 6.—Miss Laura Bromwell, holder of the aeroplane loop-the-loop record for women and one of the best known women aeroplane pilots in the world, was killed at Mitchell Field yesterday afternoon.

Miss Bromwell was flying at an altitude of about 1,000 feet when the accident happened. She had just completed one loop, and was about to make a second when something went wrong with the plane, and it crashed to the ground.

The machine in which Miss Bromwell was flying was manufactured in Canada. It was of the so-called Canadian J. N.-4 type. It had been thoroughly tested before the aviatrix entered it.

Miss Bromwell, whose home was in Cincinnati, was twenty-three years old. She established her loop-the-loop record on May 15 last, when she executed 199 loops in an hour and 20 minutes.

URGES OTTAWA EMPIRE MEETING; PREMIER MEIGHEN

Ottawa, June 6.—(Canadian Press.)—The Prime Minister left to-day by train for Montreal, whence, it is expected, he will motor to Quebec to take passage on the steamship Empress of Britain for England to attend the conference of Empire Prime Ministers. He is accompanied by Mrs. Meighen and by Loring Christie, Legal Adviser of the Department of External Affairs, and by his private secretary, Captain Armstrong.

Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, will sail for England at the same time, but Dr. Tolmie's visit will, it is said, be purely in connection with the removal of the present British embargo on Canadian cattle.

JAPANESE ARE SAID TO FAVOR DISARMAMENT

Tokyo, June 6.—Yukio Ozaki, former Minister of Justice and a leader on the movement for curtailment of naval expenditures after a lecture tour, reported, he found sentiment everywhere in Japan in conformity with his views.

PRESIDENT IS ON VISIT TO CITY

Tom Moore, Labor Leader, Here; Meeting To-night

"The unemployment problem is not going to be solved by a reduction of wages, or lowering the cost of production, but will be met better by maintaining the purchasing power of the workers by reducing the margin between cost of production and the retail prices and the fixing of such cost of production on a basis which would not demand the employer and employed an increased tribute to those holding long term war bonds," said Tom Moore, of Ottawa, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, who reached Victoria yesterday.

Conditions of unemployment are as well known to people that it is very difficult for me to tell them anything new. As a matter of fact, I have come to get information rather than to give it," said Mr. Moore to The Times.

Asked as to whether he saw any signs of relief, Mr. Moore said the situation did not look at all promising. "There are so many seasonal employments that should absorb the unemployed in Canada, yet for some reason there is no improvement and it does not look as if the situation is going to be bettered in the near future," he said.

Mr. Moore is gathering data on conditions throughout Canada in order to bring before the public the problems at this critical period he explains. He is travelling in company with A. Farnito, of Edmonton, well known labor organizer.

Yesterday afternoon Messrs. Moore and Farnito were taken for a drive around Spanish Peninsula by Chris Barker, President of the Victoria Trades and Labor Council, and E. S. Woodward, secretary. This afternoon the party went to Brentwood. He will address the meeting of the public meeting in the Trades Hall here to-night.

The meeting this evening will be participated in by J. Ley, for the Building Trades Council, and J. Dakers for the Metal Trades Council, the two bodies uniting with the Trades Council for the meeting.

To-morrow Mr. Moore will address the Kiwanis Club.

Aid is Sent to Flood Sufferers in Colorado

Pueblo, Colo., June 6.—After a night of quiet, a flood broke this morning to find that the waters in the low-lying sections of the city had receded to below the five-foot mark and were slowly rising again. The flood is at its lowest stage since its sudden onslaught last Friday night.

To-day the work of removing the bodies from the Grove and Pepper sauce bottling districts began.

Colonel Hamrock, in charge of the military, announced the situation was well in hand and that order was rapidly being brought out of chaos.

Little Looting.

Some time after midnight reports of looting in the flooded areas began to come in. Only one of two cases of actual looting have been brought to light since the military assumed control of the situation, according to Capt. H. O. Nichols, of Denver, adjutant.

To-day there will arrive from Denver, according to Col. Hamrock, enough tents, bedding, cooking utensils and medical supplies to care for 2,000 of Pueblo's homeless people. Work of establishing a refugee camp

Hon. C. C. Rallantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, is also expected to leave for England shortly with his family. Mr. Rallantyne, it is understood, will not attend the conference, but may be called in for consultation in matters affecting his department.

The liner Empress of Britain is to sail from Quebec to-morrow at 4 p. m.

Fine Subjects.

Although the agenda of the London conference of Prime Ministers contains no fewer than fourteen subjects, eight of major importance, it is probable that not more than five of the fourteen will be considered. That, at all events, will be the proportion of from Mr. Meighen.

Mr. Meighen is leaving many pressing problems behind him, and is not disposed to remain in London debating inter-imperial questions less important than those at home. In this view prevail, and there is every likelihood they will, the conference will be limited to the main questions as follows:

1. Preparations for the special constitutional conference to be held at a later date, this preparatory discussion to include such questions as the meeting place, date, composition and agenda.

2. A general review of the main features of foreign relations, particularly as they affect the Dominions.

3. The advisability of renewing the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, which under its terms expires July 12.

4. Preliminary consideration, preparatory for the proposed constitutional conference, of some working methods for arriving at a common understanding as to policy in such external affairs as concern all parts of the Empire.

Meighen's Attitude.

While Mr. Meighen will enter the conference with an open mind so far as the Parliament of Canada is concerned, there are good reasons for believing that his position upon the issues named above will be about as follows:

1. He will support renewal of the Anglo-Japanese Alliance provided it can be shown that the alliance is in Britain's interest, but will qualify his support with the condition that the treaty be acceptable as far as is possible to the United States and does not partake of the nature of a purely military alliance.

2. He will urge postponement of the naval arms race until the international situation becomes more clear, until after the special constitutional conference has defined the status and obligations of the Empire's various parts, and also until expert experts arrive at some definite conclusion as to the most effective means of promoting naval defence.

No Centralization.

2. While approving details with an open mind, Mr. Meighen will step toward imperial organization on any plan involving centralization or the creation of a super-power over local parliaments.

In Ottawa.

4. He will urge that the proposed constitutional conference be held in Ottawa, that the date be left unsettled, that the conference be purely consultative in character, its conclusions to be subject to the approval of the Parliaments of the Dominions, and that its representatives include the leaders of all the political parties in all the Dominions concerned.

Apart from the above, Mr. Meighen will enter the conference with nothing in propose.

Opposition.

It is not improbable that in regard to the naval question, the Canadian Prime Minister will encounter influential opposition. To realize this it is only necessary to remember that Mr. Lloyd George, Lord Lee of the Admiralty, and Winston Churchill will have all urged that the naval issue be dealt with. Mr. Lloyd George being particularly emphatic in his declaration that the time has come for the Dominions to relieve the motherland of some of the burden of defence, and that in this stand they will have the support of Premier Massey, of New Zealand, and Premier Hughes, of Australia. On the other hand, Mr. Meighen is almost certain to have the aid of General Smuts, Prime Minister of South Africa.

BOMB KILLED BOY IN DUBLIN

Dublin, June 6.—Three bombs were thrown at a motor car in which soldiers were crossing Newcombe Bridge here Saturday evening. A boy was killed and civilians and two policemen injured, but none of the occupants of the car was injured.

Cotton Factories.

London, June 5.—The Ministry of Labor has invited the representatives of the cotton employers and operatives to meet here to-morrow to discuss plans with a view to reopening negotiations between the employers and the cotton spinners.

There was nothing to indicate a change of attitude on the part of the employers, who announced that the mills would be closed after to-day as a result of the refusal of the employees to renew contracts expiring to-day calling for wage reductions approximating thirty per cent.

Little Looting.

Some time after midnight reports of looting in the flooded areas began to come in. Only one of two cases of actual looting have been brought to light since the military assumed control of the situation, according to Capt. H. O. Nichols, of Denver, adjutant.

NEW SCHEME FOR

SPANISH ARMY

Selection of Reserve Officers Criticized

Madrid, June 6.—The reform of the system of recruiting the Spanish army, which is henceforth in principle to be formed of the entire youth of the nation, thus doing away with the drawing of lots, is greeted with general enthusiasm.

One clause, however, of the bill drafted by Viscount Esca has brought forth sharp criticism in the press. This refers to the selection of reserve officers, who are to be chosen from among the troops, not according to their ability or skill, but because their parents are able to pay a premium, which will be calculated on their wealth, those possessing most money being called upon to pay more.

The newspaper El Sol, protesting, asks: "Is it the intention to make all citizens go into barracks and to impose on them the leadership of a caste based on money power? This appears to us abominable."

What is being done thereby is to levy a tax on the vanity of those innumerable youths without a profession who aspire to find in the wearing of the uniform a kind of redemption for their existence. It is dangerous to speculate with things referring to the army, despising the really intellectual class and forming a caste of wealthy illiterates who are no more than an embarrassment and who actually create irreparable injury to the moral homogeneity of the army."

HOPE TO OPEN

MINERAL FIELDS

Company Sends Prospectors North From Edmonton

Edmonton, June 6.—A new scheme for the "tapping" of the northern mineral country has been evolved by an American syndicate known as the Mackenzie Basin Exploration and Exploitation Company of Boise, Idaho. A representative of the company here has arranged for the sending of independent prospectors into districts with which they are familiar. In this way the new company expects to get first-hand information regarding the hidden wealth of the north country.

The organizers of the concern are old-time prospectors. The prospectors will not indulge in any "fancy frills" and will not be burdened with a quantity of useless gear. They will travel alone, with canoes or packs, and will be outfitted with just what is necessary to carry them through. The general idea, in so far as the present year is concerned, is to explore and obtain data, but development work is expected to commence next year if some of the prospects "pan out" as they are expected to do.

COLD STORAGE HOLDINGS IN U. S.

Washington, June 6.—Total stocks of meats in cold storage warehouses and packing plants in the United States are $41,000,000 pounds less than at the corresponding time last year, and nearly 261,000,000 pounds under the three-year average, according to the Bureau of Markets. The total meat cured stocks this month are 145,000,000 pounds under the five-year average. The Bureau announcement added, the principal shortage being in dried pork, salted.

Applies in cold storage this month, on the other hand, according to the Bureau, are 428,000 barrels above the five-year average, while holdings of eggs are 4,215,000 cases, as compared with 2,135,000 last year, this time. This compares with an average, over a period of five years, of 2,500,000 cases.

SCIENTIST SAYS HE CAN MAKE GOLD

Claim Put Forward by New Yorker

New York, June 6.—(Canadian Press)—Dr. Charles Benson Davis, of this city, in a paper which he has submitted to the Engineering Foundation, claims to have solved the problem of manufacturing gold. He declares he has already successfully demonstrated the possibility of making gold and other chemical elements, such as silver, platinum and copper, by transmutation of a common element. He has shown samples of the metals he claims to have made to members of the Engineering Foundation and has requested that body to investigate his claims and his methods.

Dr. Davis is a well-known chemist and has a high standing in his profession. He is a member of the Chemical Society of Industry, a Fellow of the British Chemical Society, and an honorary member of the Societe Academique d'Histoire Internationale. He is the author of several papers which have been published in chemical journals.

"WITCH DOCTORS."
Havana, Cuba, June 5.—Provincial authorities are conducting a searching investigation into the mysterious disappearance from his home on a small island near Guantanamo of Candido Martinez, aged five, who, it is reported, may have been a victim of witch doctors. Three men and a woman are being held without bail for examination, one of them being known locally as a "healer" and seller of patent medicines.

The aunt of the missing lad, his sole relative, says that his sister disappeared a year ago under similar circumstances.

HOW BOLSHIEVIKI TREAT CHILDREN

Physician Says They Have Ruined Generation

New York, June 6.—Several documents taken from official Bolshevik publications, describing the conditions under which children are living in Russia under the Bolshevik regime, have been made public by A. J. Sack, Director of the Russian Information Bureau in the United States, representing in this country the Russian democratic anti-Bolshevik forces.

The Bolshevik programme with regard to the children of Russia was formulated, according to Mr. Sack, by the Commissary Lillina at the Conference on Public Education held in Moscow. The official magazine of the Commissary of Public Education, Narodnoye Prosveshchenie (Popular Education) No. 4, quotes Lillina as saying at that conference:

"We have to create out of the young generation a generation of Communists. We must make real, good Communists of the children, for they, like WAX, are easily moulded. We must remove the children from the pernicious influence of the family. We must register the children, or let us speak frankly, nationalize them. Thus they will from the very start remain under the beneficial influence of Communism. Here they will grow up to be real Communists. To compel the mother to surrender her child to us, to the Soviet state—that is the practical task before us."

Thus Soviet institutions for children were established. The report of the Soviet inspection for February, describing one of these institutions, the Rodstvenskaya Nursery in Petrograd, says:

"The children, left to their own devices, under the supervision of inexperienced and rough-spoken nurses, with filthy clothing, and from lack of sufficient nourishment, made a painful impression. The place itself, unventilated and poorly heated, fostered in a manner of diseases and contributed to the exceedingly high rate of mortality among the children. In the course of three months the child population of that institution renewed itself to an extent of 90 per cent."

"In other words, nearly all of them sent to the hospital, or having failed even to reach the hospital, they perished while still in the nursery."

The official Bolshevik organ on public health, Ivestia Zdravookhraneniya, No. 1, gives the statistics on mortality of children in Moscow, up to the age of 16 years, per 10,000 inhabitants, as follows: 1913, 81; 1915, 78; 1916, 187; 1917, 192; 1918, 409.

Analyzing the Bolshevik activities with regard to the children of Russia, the well-known Russian physician, Dr. Horn, said in the Pirogov Medical Congress in Moscow:

"I am prepared to forgive the Bolsheviks a great many things, almost anything, but one thing there is which I cannot and will not forgive them, namely, those experiments, positively criminal and worthy of the most savage tribes of the African continent, which the Bolsheviks have been making all this time with our young generation, with our children! This crime knows no parallel throughout the history of the world. They have destroyed, morally as well as physically, a whole Russian generation; they have destroyed it irretrievably and alas, beyond remedy!"

GERMAN CABINET

Wirth Ministry Secured Vote of Confidence

Berlin, June 5.—The Reichstag Saturday voted confidence in the Government of Chancellor Wirth. The vote was 213 to 77, with 48 members not voting. The vote of confidence was on the question of approval of the Wirth Government's recent declaration regarding fulfillment of the Allied ultimatum.

A second section of the same resolution dealing with the Government's attitude toward the Upper Silesian question also was passed by a large majority.

When the Reichstag opened at noon the Communists introduced a motion affirming that the Government's attitude toward the Upper Silesian question was a "deeper distrust and opposition to the Government," but this motion and one introduced by the Nationalists voicing lack of confidence in the Cabinet were rejected by large majorities.

Boehm, on behalf of the Bavarian People's Party, declared neutrality toward the Government after the resolution of the Government Party, the Majority Socialists and Democrats expressing confidence in the Government was carried.

The forty-eight members who abstained from voting on this resolution belonged to the German People's Party, Dr. Gustav Stresemann, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, had demanded that the party's unwillingness to participate.

MANY CHEMISTRY EXPERTS TO MEET

Sessions in Montreal and New York Soon

New York, June 6.—Canadian Press.—Canadian chemistry experts will play a prominent part in a series of scientific conferences to be held this Autumn, according to an announcement issued at the Chemists' Club of New York. Meetings to be held by leading chemists of the Dominion, of Great Britain and the United States, it is declared, will result in giving a fresh impetus to chemistry on the American continent.

The functions will begin with the arrival of members of the Society of Chemical Industry of Great Britain, which, departing from its usual custom, will meet on this side of the Atlantic. The members will join with the Canadian branch of their organization in sessions to be held in Montreal late in August. Their official quarters will be the Windsor Hotel, while the scientific and business sessions will centre at McGill University, where there will be a special convocation. The Canadian and British chemists will then inspect numerous plants in Montreal and on Thursday, September 1, will visit the plants of the Laurendeau Company at Grand Mere and the Belg-Canadian Company at Shawinigan Falls.

Into United States
On the afternoon of Labor Day the members will cross the border into the United States, where they will be met by a committee of the United States section of their society, and conducted through the industrial plants at Niagara Falls. At Syracuse they will have luncheon with the Solvay Process Company and make a tour of the large factory of that corporation. The chemists will then go to Albany and from there take the night boat down the Hudson to New York City.

The visitors will be welcomed next day by members of their United States section of the Society of Chemical Industry, who will be their hosts at a luncheon.

Elaborate preparations for the reception of the Canadian and Old Country chemists will be carried out as now being planned by the various societies through the Co-ordinating Committee, which is headed by Hesse is chairman and Dr. Allan Rogers is secretary. The festivities, meetings and entertainments which will follow are designed to bring into closer bonds all chemists of Anglo-Saxon stock.

The Fall meeting of the American Chemical Society, which includes 15,000 members, is to be held here from September 6 to 10 inclusive. The first contact between the visiting members of the great organizations which represent chemistry in three lands will be a lawn party to be given on the afternoon of September 7 to foreign guests and to scientific societies at Columbia University. Other societies of a scientific nature have been asked to participate in the welcoming of the visitors from abroad.

Scientific sessions of the American Chemical Society, at which many vital matters concerning chemical research and applied chemistry will be discussed, are to be held at Columbia University, its official headquarters. All of these meetings the Canadian and Old Country chemists have been invited. They will also be present at the banquet of the American Chemical Society on the evening of September 9 at its hotel headquarters, the Waldorf-Astoria.

Interlude
An interlude devoted to social activity on September 10 with plenty of golf and tea, and on September 11 a boat excursion will fill in the time before the next event.

The fortnight beginning September 12 will be dedicated to chemistry in all its phases, for it makes the holding of the National Exposition of Chemical Industries, which is to be held in a large armory here. There will be brought together a remarkable demonstration of what has been done in Canada and the United States since the war in adapting the resources of the two nations to the needs of this continent. The exposition will show the progress of the struggling American dye industry, the manufacture of crude chemicals, and also show how the most abstruse problems of scientific research have been solved. Many acres of floor space will be occupied by apparatus used in the chemical industry, and various chemical processes will be demonstrated to the general public.

COINAGE SUGGESTION IN GREAT BRITAIN

Manchester, June 4.—(Canadian Press)—The Manchester Chamber of Commerce has discussed a proposal to raise the value of the British penny so that 10 pennies would equal a shilling. The suggestion, it is pointed out, would obviate the necessity for any new coinage. The Decimal Association has expressed itself as in favor of the idea.

MR. MAHARG IN ELECTION CAMPAIGN

New Minister Speaks in Saskatchewan

Assiniboia, Sask., June 6.—Charges that the independent movement in the Saskatchewan provincial general election was being promoted from the office of the Minister of Railways in Ottawa were made here by Hon. J. A. Maharg. It was Mr. Maharg's first appearance during the campaign and he spoke on behalf of the candidature of A. J. Hindle, M. P. for Willow Bunch.

Mr. Maharg said that during his parliamentary term at Ottawa a delegation from Southern Saskatchewan had interviewed the Minister of Railways, requesting additional railroad facilities for their part of the province. They were told, he said, that they could only get what they were after provided they could show solid vote against the Martin Government during this election.

Dealing with the Grain Inquiry Commission, Mr. Maharg said that

UNEMPLOYMENT

GROWS IN CUBA

Havana, June 6.—Unemployment is a grave problem facing Cuba, according to The Havana Post, which estimates that the closing of the sugar centrals will increase those out of work to more than 300,000. There are more than 75,000 unemployed in Havana at present, the paper states. It has been informed, with the number increasing as a result of the influx of others from the country districts. Unless the Government takes action it is asserted there will be no relief until the agricultural districts again offer employment next September.

KRUPPS OPERATE

ON GREAT SCALE

More Employees Than Before the War

New York, June 6.—(Canadian Press)—A correspondent of the Guaranty Trust Company, writing from Berlin, reports that the Krupps are employing 12,000 more workmen now than in the month immediately before the outbreak of the war. This total does not include workmen in five other manufacturing undertakings which are controlled by or work in alliance with the Krupps. At Essen, in addition to the casting and rolling operations formerly carried on, seventy-three different kinds of machines, apparatus or technical articles are being produced. The Krupp cast steel works have been extended from a pre-war area of 242 acres to 1,400 acres, and the construction of railway material has reached enormous dimensions.

The Krupp concern has now absorbed the Rhine Metalware and Machine Factory, and that great warplane is now engaged in the manufacture of agricultural machinery and enamelware. Krupps control the Ermenegildo Zegna, Dresden, large manufacturers of cameras and moving picture apparatus, and also are specializing in the manufacture of cash registers, textile machinery and oil and sugar refining machinery.

The way of the transgressor is hard. A lot of married men are hen-pecked by their affinities.

EVENTS MARKED

ENDING OF SESSION

Presentation to Meighen; Address by Governor-General

Ottawa, June 6.—Parliament was prorogued at 6.30 p. m. Saturday. The last item in the supplementary estimates, one of $40,000, payment to the Park St. Charles Company, Ltd., of Quebec, as the outcome of an arbitration award, having been left over for the next session, the members were summoned to the Red Chamber, where the Speech from the Throne was read. On their return to the Commons chamber, the members were dismissed and the Government members went to attend a caucus and a presentation to Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, Prime Minister, of a magnificent Crown Derby china set.

Address. In the Senate Chamber the Governor-General replied to the address from Parliament presented earlier in the day, as follows: "It is no easy task to find words adequate to express my gratitude to you for the address which you have presented to me and to acknowledge the great honor conferred upon me to-day by the Parliament of the Dominion."

"On my return to the Old Country it will be my privilege to submit to His Majesty the expression of your loyalty and devotion to his throne and person, and to give renewed assurance to the people of the British Isles and of your well-established sympathy and good will."

A Nation. "To-day Canada is formally and justly recognized as one of the nations of the world, and while she will work out her own destiny in her own way, she will ever be faithful to British institutions and proud to take her place and share her responsibility as one of the sister nations which constitute the British Empire."

"I wish to join with my personal thanks those of the Duchess and my family."

"I assure you that it is with feelings of very deep and sincere regret that we realize that the moment has arrived when we must say goodbye."

Determination. "We came among you at a critical and anxious period. The Empire was engaged in a life and death struggle, but from the moment I landed on the shores of Canada I was impressed, as I could not have been elsewhere, by the devotion and determination of her people to give their all and to make every effort until our purpose was accomplished and victory certain."

"We had the privilege of being associated with you in those dark and anxious days, and of taking part in your sphere of work necessary for the successful prosecution of the war."

Peace. "We also had the privilege of being associated with you in the hour of triumph, and since the conclusion of hostilities we have watched the transition from conditions of war to those of peace. Not necessarily the progress is difficult and slow, but I think that without any undue optimism, I am justified in congratulating you on a record of substantial progress."

"While I leave Canada with deep and sincere regret, I shall take with me a firmly rooted conviction in her future greatness and prosperity. With an active and virile population and liberally endowed with incalculable resources, she will take an ever-increasing part in the trade and commerce of the World and can confidently look forward to an era of still further expansion."

Thanks. "I have endeavored to make myself acquainted with all the life of the Dominion and to meet as many of her citizens as possible and I am glad to have this opportunity of expressing my very sincere and heartfelt thanks for the kindness and welcome which I have invariably received."

The Duchess and I shall always have a very warm affection for Canada and our personal friends here, and we shall always take a most sincere interest in your progress and welfare. If at any time any of you may be visiting the Old Country we shall look forward to meeting you and renewing our acquaintance."

Legislation. Dealing with the legislation of the session, the Governor-General said: "I am glad to relieve you from further attendance in Parliament after a session which has been marked by legislation of an important character. Steps to increase the trade of the country have been taken by the ratification of commercial agreements with France and the British West Indies. It may be hoped that the latter agreement will also result in strengthening the ties which bind together His Majesty's Dominions."

"Consequent on Canada's position as a member of the League of Nations, acts have been passed to define Canadian rationals and to authorize the ratification and the carrying into effect of the protocol accepting the statute for the Permanent Court of International Justice."

Lake of Woods. "The attempt to arrange for joint control by the Dominion and Province of Ontario of the levels of the flow of the Lake of the Woods water system having become abortive, by reason of a bill concurrent to the Lake of the Woods Control Act failing to pass the Legislature of Ontario, legislation has been enacted declaring certain works in that system to be for the general advantage of Canada and providing for control by the Dominion in the public interests of all parts of the country having rights therein."

"A committee on pensions, insurance and re-establishment has given thorough consideration to these problems and their recommendations have been embodied in the legislation which will make more adequate the assistance which the country owes to its ex-service men."

Dairy Produce. "A bill to regulate the grading of dairy produce has become law. This legislation should conduce the more systematic and satisfactory marketing of a very important Canadian product with better results to both producer and consumer."

"The act to repeal the Conservation Act and to make provision for the carrying on by the appropriate departments of the Government of the necessary services hitherto conducted under the Commission of Conservation will result in a reduction of public charges which is so important at the present time."

"A further step towards the solution of the problem of national railways has been taken in the passage of an act by virtue of which possession and control of the Grand Trunk Railway system has been acquired and provision made for revising the arbitration proceedings to ascertain the value of stocks."

Silky Wool From Australia

No other material was ever used in these famous stockings for children.

There have been times when the Australian supply was light. Then, we were unable to produce enough Little Darling and Little Daisy Hosiery to go 'round. For we would not substitute other wool.

We thought it better not to vary the quality of Little Darling and Little Daisy Hosiery.

Mothers, we know, expect in these stockings the finest, softest and best knitted wool yarn. They expect unusual wear. It means much to them to clothe their children in such comfortable, healthful—and, at the same time, such economical—material.

LITTLE DARLING HOSIERY—for babies and tiny tots up to seven—has silken toe and heel.

LITTLE DAISY HOSIERY—for children up to twelve—has extra strength in heel and toe.

MR. LOWTHER.

It is a far cry from the seat of authority in the British House of Commons to the capital city of the Province of British Columbia. But it may be taken for granted that Mr. Lowther has detected no difference whatever in the measure of admiration and esteem in which he is held at home and that with which he has come in contact in a city six thousand miles distant. His visit to Canada is unique and distinct from that of other distinguished public men. To him has been given the privilege of controlling the deliberations of the greatest and most influential parliamentary institution in the world. For sixteen years he occupied the Speaker's chair and the latter part of his term of office included the period in which British statesmen were called upon to deal with their share of a great world tragedy. Through that stage of the country's history Mr. Lowther was called upon to exercise an almost supernatural understanding of the political mind. But he descends from a long and distinguished line of parliamentarians and the experience of many years on the floor of the House was his before he reached the seat of authority. Thus it is small wonder that this part of his important task should have been discharged with more than ordinary success. Moreover, it will go down in British Parliamentary history that a lifelong Conservative in the person of the Rt. Hon. James Lowther fulfilled the duties of his high office through nearly sixteen years under Liberal Prime Ministers with unimpeachable fairness. If this were his only attribute the people of Victoria would appreciate the honor of his presence in their midst. But Mr. Lowther has so much of that British spirit and temper about his genial and modest self as to make him welcome in every sense of the term.

THE RED CROSS.

If all governments were perfect and if the taxpayers in this country never grumbled there would be no need for a Red Cross or any form of "drive" designed to collect money for necessary purposes. But the perfect government and the contented taxpayer are purely imaginary and will very probably remain so for many a long day to come. On that account the general public will be called upon from time to time to give its sympathy and its dollars to the worthy cause.

It should not be necessary to explain the mission of the Red Cross any more than to emphasize the fact that its post-war responsibility in respect of human considerations is just as vital as the material liability with which the Government of the day is concerned. The Red Cross has performed a work that will never be assessed at its real value. It has taken care of the "special case." It has strengthened the weaknesses of legal formulae by its practical assistance. It has not allowed the patient to bleed to death in the absence of the official bandage. But the Red Cross has not confined its activities to the actual members of what was once Canada's fighting army. It has gone into the homes of these men. It has taken food and raiment for the family. It has relieved distress in general.

In other words it has performed a work which must be continued if the lot of many in our midst is to be made bearable. For this very plain reason the membership campaign which commenced this morning should be heartily supported.

THAT PUBLIC PLACE.

It may be taken for granted that the Attorney-General has a fairly clear conception of what constitutes a public place within the meaning of the Government Liquor Act. It is equally certain that either from his own Department or from the Board of Control will come a definite intimation for general observation before the sun rises on the fifteenth of this month. On that account it would be just as well if those who contemplate a very liberal interpretation of those two innocent looking words were to wait a few days before indulging in too much exultation over the new freedom which is involved in this phase of the changed order of things. The manner in which this section is interpreted and the manner in which it is observed after it shall have been clearly explained have an important bearing upon the life and administration of the Act itself. If the privileges to be extended under the provision are such as to threaten a convention of the expressed will of the people—who did not vote for a virtually unlimited distribution of liquor, but who did instruct the Government to sell it and control it in every sense of the term—the law will have a short period of existence. But it may be assumed that the Attorney-General does not intend to invite a repetition of the difficulties which he could not possibly escape under the operation of a law which three parts of the people in the Province took occasion to abolish as soon as the opportunity presented itself.

WIRTH SUSTAINED.

Whatever may take place six months hence the vote of confidence in Dr. Wirth's Government indicates a resolve on the part of the Reichstag to do nothing that would be likely to hinder the establishment of Germany's good faith and her intention to observe the provisions of the Treaty. There are numerous breakers ahead and the Chancellor will not be out of the wood until the country resigns itself to the pinch of his taxation proposals. But the vote on Saturday gives him temporary strength to formulate a domestic policy that will lay the foundation for economic recovery and the rehabilitation of national credit. The fact that the German People's Party is resigned to obstruct the "reparations" Government to the last ditch need not cause any alarm. As long as Chancellor Wirth is able to point to armed occupation as the only alternative to future displays of evasion he will be assured of sufficient support in the Reichstag to prosecute his policies. And he and his colleagues are convinced by this time that the Allies mean business.

THAT RAILWAY.

Although it will have to be admitted that the addition of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway system to the Dominion Government's property would assist the Canadian National in this Province it was not to be expected that the Prime Minister would welcome Mr. Oliver's proposal at this time. It would not require more than an average imagination to picture the sort of reception the House of Commons would extend to a bill to validate an agreement along that line.

For the time being the Pacific Great Eastern will have to be regarded as a Provincial obligation and the people of this Province can do nothing more than make the best of a bad bargain. It is obvious that the line must be extended in order that it may reach its maximum earning capacity; but it will undoubtedly be the Government's policy to make further appropriations harmonize with its expenditures in other parts of the Province. In the meantime a search for a buyer might prove profitable.

THE ONLY WAY.

It is generally expected that the next development in Great Britain's coal strike will be a conference between the owners and the men themselves with the Government playing the role of spectator. This would be a desirable decision in view of the fact that sooner or later the two chief parties to the controversy will have to compose their differences and agree to work in harmony. As the matter stands at present the Government is ready to contribute ten million pounds in the form of a temporary subsidy for the purpose of easing the transition period from de-control to private operation. But it cannot continue such a costly policy and the sooner the Miners' Federation makes its own arrangements with the owners direct the better it should be for them and all concerned. It must be obvious to the men by this time that public sentiment is dead against them and demands a permanent settlement. As long as that is delayed they cannot escape a share of the penalty which their action has inflicted upon the life and industry of the country.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

One writer commenting upon the coal strike on Great Britain declares the nation to be dying economically. On the other hand Mr. Asquith places his reliance in the great national asset which he describes as "the temperamental buoyancy of the Britisher."

Now that the city of Victoria is assured of a brand new eighteen-hole golf links at the Uplands it is in order to extend congratulations to the United Services Golf Club through whose enterprise such a desirable addition to the city's recreational facilities has been made possible.

When the Hon. S. F. Tolmie tackles the question of the British embargo on Canadian cattle with the officials of the Ministry of Agriculture in Whitehall he may be relied upon to extract a statement which will effectively establish the robust health of the stock of this Dominion. It would be an excellent thing if he could appear before the Royal Commission, which is now in session in connection with this important question.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS.

THE BOLSHEVISTS' DOGMA.

(The London Press.)
The Bolshevist, according to a profession of faith recently issued by the central committee of the Communist party, "confesses" to negatives only. A renewal of the propaganda against religion is being carried on under orders from the Soviet. Churches are desecrated with the avowed object of undermining the Russian's inherent spirit of reverence for houses of worship. Bibles and church furnishings are being destroyed, along with all books on religious subjects still remaining in libraries and schools. As the crown of Bolshevist aggression against religion, the following proclamation recently was ordered to be posted on the church doors of all towns and villages:

"There is no God. God no longer exists. God is an invention of the capitalists, priests and priests. There is no life after death. Man has no soul. He differs in nothing from the animals; once dead nothing remains of him. Man lives only on earth. He must occupy himself solely with his material existence. His duty is to ameliorate and liberate himself from all exploiters."

HOROSCOPE.

MONDAY, JUNE 6, 1921.

(Copyright, 1921, by The McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

This is a most threatening and unfavorable day, according to astrology. Venus, Saturn, Mars and Neptune are all in evil place. The new Moon of this date takes place in the early morning, the luminaries being in conjunction with Mars. The rising position of Mercury, well aspected, is read to presage a turning of the public mind to educational matters, higher thought and mental expansion.

Back of all the influences is one of sinister import that will nourish apprehension of war or serious trouble with a foreign country.

There is a sign read as presaging some sort of serious trouble for the United States. Neptune indicates much added interest in the navy. The hour of fate for the Turkish Empire is near the striking point, according to an English astrologer. Neptune is in a place read as denoting frauds that affect the public funds. Federal finances may be affected. He foretells that the summer will bring them many political anxieties. There is a forecast that seems to indicate for women a tendency to demand much as they have in the past, even though they may have the vote. The stars seem to presage evil for Great Britain, which is to suffer as it through some particular trick of fate. Persons whose birthdate it is may have rather a strenuous year. They should avoid litigation. Children born on this day may meet with many difficulties, but these subjects of Gemini are usually gifted and resourceful. They are fond of keeping busy and have the power to accomplish a great deal.

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chances of insertion. ## BRITISH INCOME TAX.

To the Editor.—You were recently good enough to insert a letter from me on the above subject, and as a result point has now arisen, I am taking the liberty of writing you again. I am now pleased to inform your readers that as a result of prolonged negotiations with the Inland Revenue all persons receiving income through a British trust are entitled to recovery of tax in exactly the same way as if no trust existed.

The position of residents abroad in relation to British income tax is, therefore, as follows:
1. All British subjects can request the whole or part of any income tax deducted from their dividends, annuities, rents, etc., for 1920-21 and in future years, to be repaid to them upon their total income.

2. All Crown servants, serving or retired, or their widows, missionaries and persons resident abroad for the sake of health, can claim as above for three years back.

3. Every person abroad, British subject or not, can recover the whole of the tax deducted from British war loans or exchequer bonds, and foreign colonial securities for three years back, whether held in trust or not. I shall be pleased to advise, without charge, any of your readers who care to write me, exactly how any of the above claims should be prepared.

A DANGEROUS PRACTICE.

To the Editor.—There is one thing that I think that should be brought to the attention of the big officials of our railway companies. That is the highly dangerous practice of smoking in sleeping cars.

In a train in which I was travelling recently from Toronto to Montreal, I heard a porter go up to the berth and ask the occupant if he was smoking. There was a very sheepish denial, but as a matter of fact the man was smoking a cigarette not in the smoking room, remember, but in bed.

Quite apart from the back of consideration which this showed for the other passengers—amongst whom were several ladies—think of the danger of it, where an accidental little fire might have endangered the lives of some score more. There are usually enough instances on record where men smoking in bed in their own houses have fallen asleep and been burned to death, without having to emphasize the much bigger danger in a bed on a train.

I spoke about this case to the porter in the morning, and he told me that one day there would be a big fire, and then people working in bed, all up and take notice. The worst offenders are not the people in the ordinary berths, who can be asked to stop; so much as those who occupy compartments, and who can lock their doors and tell the porter, who follows his instructions, to go to the devil. I am not an anti-smoking crank, but I am a very frequent traveller, and once had the misfortune to lose a relative in a railway fire, which started in a way something like this, and I am sure if the big railway officials realized the seriousness of this they would, in justice to the travelling public, issue strict orders about it.

KING TO OPEN
BELFAST SESSION

Expected at Ulster Parliament Opening

Belfast, June 6.—While official announcement is being withheld, it is generally accepted that King George and Queen Mary will attend in state the opening of the Ulster Parliament and that they will travel in the royal yacht, accompanied by warships, to Bangor, the home of the famous Royal Ulster Yacht Club, under the flag of which, Sir Thomas Lipton's yacht has voyaged.

King George has not set foot in Ireland since his visit to Dublin a decade ago and has not been in Belfast since he came here as the Duke of York twenty-two years ago.

The Most Rev. Charles d'Arcy, Primate of the Anglican Church in Ireland, assisted by other church dignitaries, participated yesterday in Belfast Cathedral at a service of intercession in connection with the opening of the Ulster Parliament.

More Deaths.

Dublin, June 6.—A police patrol was ambushed at Magherafelt, County Londonderry, yesterday morning. A sergeant was shot dead and a constable seriously wounded. Another patrol engaged in tearing down seditious posters at Abbeyfeale, Limerick, was fired upon from a house that had been commandeered. A constable was killed and five were wounded.

Saturday evening John Brady, the son of a solicitor, who was sitting with a companion on the sea wall in Dublin, was shot and killed by men riding on bicycles. Brady's companion was wounded and died a short time later.

Saturday night auxiliaries are reported to have fired into a crowd in Dublin, killing a young member of Parliament and wounding another man and a woman.

Esmonds.
Montreal, June 6.—O. T. Gratton Esmonds, the so-called Sinn Fein envoy, found guilty of seditious utterances in Vancouver, arrived here yesterday and will leave to-day for Quebec, where he will sail on the steamship Empress of Britain.

Mr. Esmonds said he would carry away pleasant impressions of Canada, and expressed special pleasure with the judges in British Columbia, who had tried him and ordered him to leave the country.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Daily Times, June 6, 1896.

Everything points to to-morrow's races being the best ever seen at the Victoria track which, thanks to the recent showers, is in record-breaking condition.

The Fifth Regiment representatives of the Shoenburness team have been appointed. They are Sergeant A. J. Thomas, Victoria; Sergeant-Major Cornish, Vancouver. The team will leave Quebec for England on June 29.

Colquhoun Hall was comfortably filled last evening by the electors in that vicinity who gave the Opposition candidates, Mr. Templeman and Dr. Milne, a good hearing. Mr. Archer Martin, of Victoria, exposed the peculiar methods of the Tupper family and those associated with them.

College, and formerly of the Manitoba Agriculture College announces that he will leave shortly for an extended trip through the British Isles and Western Europe. Although the president will represent the Ontario Agricultural College as a guest at the conference of Universities of the British Empire to meet in London, his visit has no official significance.

The Red Cross Public Health Campaign

PUBLIC HEALTH is the foundation upon which rests the happiness of the people and the strength of the nation. What is the state of your health? The average man and woman is wont to say, "oh, I'm healthy enough." "I'm perfectly safe from epidemics," etc. You may think you are safe—but YOU ARE NOT! Disease in many guises may be lurking near you, ready to strike you down at any time with its deadly poisons.

Where ignorance of the laws of health and hygiene exist, sickness must inevitably follow—whether it be in the slums of the city or in the remote and sparsely settled districts. There is to-day an appalling percentage of people in this Province who are ignorant of the fundamental rules pertaining to the maintenance of a healthy mind and body.

The Red Cross, in its public health campaign, is teaching these people how to combat disease in every form. It wards off disease from your children—the child who is yet unborn—and makes the world a better place for him to live in. It wards off pestilence and contagion from your own community, thus protecting the whole Province. It is aiming to weld the people of our own country and all other countries into that common brotherhood of sympathy so necessary to keep humanity in the path of progress.

It is accomplishing these things by going into the homes where sickness and danger exists. It is teaching the people how to prevent disease, or, if it does creep in, how to cope with it intelligently.

By its general propaganda and educational programme it is bringing public health problems to the attention of a greater percentage of the people than ever before—it is arousing and evoking their interest in public health work.

The Red Cross to-day is the vision of a wonderful ideal. Your faith in its principles—your moral and financial support of its membership enrollment campaign—will carry it to a glorious reality.

Caps Back After Bad Reverses In Yakima

Victoria Dropped Saturday's Game on Shannon's Miscue in Ninth, While Yesterday Capitals Were Overtaken in Seventh and Beaten in Eighth; Series With Vancouver Opened Here This Evening.

Victoria's luckless ball team returned from its second road trip of the season this afternoon to hook up with Vancouver Beavers at the Stadium this evening at 6:30 o'clock in the first of a four-game series.

All the Capitals were packing besides their grips and bat bags several good-sized gronches for they believe that they should have been credited with a better showing in Yakima.

You can't win with Held umpiring," was all that Cliff Blankenship, manager of the Capitals, would say when questioned about his episode over in the fruit-picking country.

"Blank" Exonerated.

According to a finding handed down by President Burnett, of the Pacific International League, Manager Blankenship was totally exonerated for his part in the row, but Dempsey was fined $100 and threatened with suspension for a second offence. But what happened to "Red" Held? This is the second time this official has been in wrong with a Victoria team. Last year, he was blamed for the scrap with Bill Leard last year. The fans here want to know how long this arbitrator is going to be allowed to roam at large and queer Victoria's chances. His upsur in Yakima cost Blankenship a bad bump on the head and robbed Victoria of the services of both their manager and Dempsey for several days.

Victoria hopes for better things this week. Both to-night's game and to-morrow's will be played at 6:30 o'clock, while on Wednesday there will be a double-header, the first game being played at 2:30 o'clock, and the second at 7 o'clock.

Yakima, Wash., June 6.—Yakima still has the ability to come from behind and win ball games. When four runs to the bad in the seventh inning yesterday the fruit-pickers began to swipe heavily at Washington's slants and tied up the score. In the eighth inning they went on another batting jam and scored six runs, which gave them the game by 4-3.

Victoria looked every bit as good as Yakima last week, but they were unable to hold their lead in the last inning. Many times the Capitals entered the home stretch with several runs to the good, but they faltered and Yakima overtook them and won.

Lost on Error.

On Saturday Victoria stumbled again and lost by 7-3. The Capitals made a grand effort to come from behind, and tied up the game in the ninth inning by scoring three runs. Then Shannon made a costly fumble in Yakima's half of the ninth, and Lafayette trotted home with the winning run. This game was the best of the series, and Victoria had an edge that should have won the game, but for the final blunder.

When Yakima scored seven out of the nine games played, when the teams met earlier in the season in Victoria, Yakima won seven out of eight games, and gives them the edge on the Capitals, the standing being 14 wins and 3 losses.

Long Distance Hitting.

The Capitals, who have been doing a lot of long-hitting here, continued their hard-clouting over the weekend. In the Saturday game Shannon, Anfinson and Handley each clouted out doubles, while Handley smacked a homer over the fence. Handley got three hits on five trips to the plate.

In the Sunday game the Capitals were very wicked with their sticks. Engle, Handley, Shannon and Anfinson kissed the pill for doubles, while Anfinson and Bankhead each chalked up a triple. Engle kicked through with a home run.

Engle Good Hitter.

The Victoria club has obtained a wonderful hitter in Engle, the new centre-fielder. He meets the ball fairly, and it travels fast and far. Handley has shown some good hitting, and looks like one of the most dangerous men in the league. Victoria is in the cellar just now, but the team will prove troublesome before long, and is not likely to remain in the dumps for long.

Winnipeg Fans Marvel At Ability of Scotties British Pro Golfers Victors In Foursomes

Winnipeg, June 6.—(Canadian Press)—Giving an exhibition of football as it should be played, and which at times was a revelation to the 3,000 enthusiasts who crowded into the park, the touring Scottish footballers continued their conquering methods at the expense of the Manitoba representative here on Saturday afternoon. The score was 3 to 1, which hardly tells the merits of the two teams, though the locals made a splendid showing, and kept the redoubtable visitors hustling at times which served to make the game most interesting.

From the standpoint of a contest, it was no game as the Scots soon showed their superiority, but as an exhibition it was the very best. The visitors at no time hardly extended themselves to the limit of their powers though they had to play a lot of good football to secure the two-goal margin. It was not until the closing minutes of play that the locals managed to penetrate the defense of the famed old country team, and the goal was well earned through a pretty play by Stewart who beat the wonderful Brownlie by a pretty shot from the side.

Largest Crowd in History.

The weather conditions were ideal for football and local enthusiasts turned out in force to welcome the distinguished visitors from overseas.

Victoria Went to Pieces in Last Quarter and Lost Game

Defence Had Nothing on Local Stick-Handlers Until Stag Was Put on. Won Out by 9 Goals to 3.

Vancouver, June 6.—Con Jones' stadium was well filled on Saturday to witness the Vancouver aggregation of stick-handlers administer another sound thumping to the Victoria representatives by the count of 9 goals to 3 in the third match on the new league's schedule. On the form displayed in the capital in the week of the Islanders were picked to give the home crew a rugged battle, and this they did for two periods, but in the remaining half the local sharpshooters let loose their speed and almost drove the capitals under with an avalanche of goals. The visitors' defence blew sky-high in the closing quarters, and Angie McDonald and Peacock found the net repeatedly at regular intervals.

Billy Fitzgerald was the star of the Victoria lineup, and it was due to his good work that kept them within striking distance of the locals all through the game.

No One Boring In.

The players set a fast pace during the first two quarters and the play was very even. In these sessions the Victoria had fully their share of the play around the net, but Fitzgerald seemed the only player willing to bore in and take the shots from a distance. He was either blocked by sticks of Painter and McQuig or picked off by Davis in the nets.

The Victoria men all play clean lacrosse, and at times showed flashes of brilliant stickhandling, especially Doran and Tom Fitzgerald on the defence, but loose checking at critical moments when the opposition was close into the nets occasioned their downfall in the latter stages of the game. Torphy in goal played a good game for a time and stopped some hard shots, but he cleared slowly and some soft ones slipped past him towards the end of the game.

Got Lucky Goal.

Vancouver scored the only goal of the first quarter, the shot going in after Munro had partly blocked it. Fitzgerald showed flashes of his net time form and during the quarter got away from his check several times and went in fast on Davis, while Doran exhibited nice stickhandling and checking on the Victoria defence, and his steady work was a big factor.

Early in the second quarter a Vancouver home player was laid low with a hard body check and while

Portland, Ore., June 6.—Owing to the showing made by Dave Shade in his bout on Friday night with Jack Britton, which was declared a draw, Shade has been matched to again meet the Seattle boxer on Saturday.

L. H. Hardie wins match from Tye.

L. H. Hardie won the Challenger & Mitchell Cup competition at the Oak Bay links yesterday. In the final match with Bouchamp Tye, Mr. Hardie had a handicap of 18 and Mr. Tye was at 17. Mr. Hardie won out by three up and two to play.

Norman Bant won the second flight of the competition by defeating R. H. B. Kerr in the final game.

Mack sold to Seattle.

Saskatoon, June 6.—Joe Devine, manager of the Calgary Bronks, announced Saturday that he has sold "Stubby" Mack, his star pitcher, to the Seattle club of the Pacific Coast League.

American Representatives Went Under In First Part of International Match at Glen Eagles, Scotland; Full Week of Golf Between Greatest Players of Two Nations; Ten Men to Team.

Glen Eagles, Scotland, June 6.—Great Britain won the four-somes competition run off this forenoon as part of to-day's international match between British and American professional golf teams, comprising leading representatives of the two nations.

British players won three of the matches, while the Americans were unable to capture any.

Two of the matches were halved.

J. G. Sherlock and Josh Taylor, Great Britain, defeated Charles Hoffer and William Melhorn, one up.

J. H. Taylor and James Braid, Great Britain, versus Fred McLeod and George Mackenzie, America, all square.

A. G. Havers and James McKen, Great Britain, defeated Wilfred Reid and George McLean, America, 6 up and 5 to play.

George Duncan and Abe Mitchell, Great Britain, versus Jack Hutchinson and Walter Hagen, America, all square.

Harry Vardon and Edward Ray, Great Britain, defeated Emmett French and Tom Kerrigan, America, 5 up and 4 to play.

Glen Eagles, Scotland, June 6.—To-day will witness the beginning of a full week of golf between professional players of the United States and Great Britain. The competition will be match play by teams of 10 men on each side.

The United States players will be Jack Hutchinson, Emmett French, Walter Hagen, Fred McLeod, George McLean, Tom Kerrigan, Charles Hoffer, Clarence Mackenzie, Wilfred Reid and W. M. Melhorn.

For Great Britain the players will be George Duncan, Abe Mitchell, Edward Ray, J. H. Taylor, Harry Vardon, James McKen, Joseph Taylor and J. G. Sherlock. French will be captain of the visiting team and Duncan will lead the British players.

Jim Barnes Sick.

The teams are being held to ten men because of the fact that J. Douglas Edgar, the Canadian open champion and professional of the Druid Hills Club, of Atlanta, is not yet a naturalized United States citizen, and Jim Barnes, of the Pelham Country Club, is suffering from illness.

The illness of Barnes may prevent him from competing in the open championship.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be occupied in qualifying strokes competition over the King's course of 18 holes and the Queen's course of nine holes for a professional international game for which one thousand pounds sterling will be distributed as prizes, which will begin Tuesday.

The sixteen players with the lowest aggregate scores for the fifty-four holes of the two courses will take part in the first and second round of the thousand guinea stroke play over the King's course at 18 holes. The semi-finals will be played Friday and the final on Saturday. These will be played over 36 holes.

Glen Eagles, June 6.—In the individual matches of the British-American professional golf competition this afternoon, Emmett French, America, defeated Edward Ray, Great Britain, two up and one to play.

George Duncan, Great Britain, defeated Jack Hutchinson, America, two up and one to play.

Abe Mitchell, Great Britain, and Walter Hagen, America, halved their match.

Britain Wins.

Glen Eagles, June 6.—Later, Great Britain defeated the United States in the international professional golf match played here to-day.

The British won nine of the day's matches and the Americans three.

LOCAL SOCCER TEAM DEFEATS LADYSMITH

Team Picked to Meet Scotsmen Won Over Miners in Tame Game by 2-1

Ladysmith, June 6.—The Victoria team journeyed up to Ladysmith on Saturday to try conclusion with the speedy Connaught Cup challengers, and succeeded in getting away with a 2 to 1 victory after a hard but not really ragged game.

Five minutes after the start Totty received a nice centre and made no mistake in finding the net. This set the miners going, and they kept the Victoria defence working hard. From a miskick by Church, a beautiful shot was sent in which struck Brewster's hand, and the referee awarded a penalty. Orr took the kick, but Shrimpton dived for it and jammed the ball against the up right, from which it was cleared.

Miners at Last Scored.

Not to be denied the miners worked hard and from a nice little bit of combination between their forwards, Gibbons got possession and scored with a fine drive which gave Shrimpton no chance, thus equalizing the score. Play continued with no further score until the whistle blew for half time.

Halves Worked Well.

On the resumption Victoria seemed to get going better, the halves putting up a fine exhibition, but the forwards seemed to be dispirited owing to the players being tried out in new positions. However, they continued to hold their own, and after Munro had got his head in front of a beauty from Davie, the ex-Cardonado centre, long punt by Richardson relieved the pressure, and play was carried into the Ladysmith half. The goalie saved one, two hot ones, but was beaten on the last ten minutes by a low drive from Cummings.

For the Ladysmith team Gibbons, Orr and Davis were the pick, and for Victoria, Allen, Brynjolfsson, Munro and Shrimpton. The Victoria team will have to undergo several changes yet before it can hope to hold the Scotsmen, but the players and management are working hard to that end, and the public can be assured of a good game.

Interesting Agenda for National Council Meeting

Twenty-Eighth Annual Conference at Calgary This Week; Much Important Business Slated

The National Council of Women will hold its twenty-eighth annual meeting in Calgary, commencing on Thursday. Mrs. S. D. Scott, of Vancouver, the provincial vice-president, and Hon. Mrs. M. E. Smith, M.P., will be among the British Columbia delegates to the conference. The agenda is a particularly interesting one and will include discussion on many proposed legislative reforms.

The conference opens with an executive meeting on Thursday, and a reception will be held that evening at the home of Senator and Lady Loughheed.

On Friday, June 10, there will be a meeting of the standing committees, including immigration, objectionable printed matter, equal moral standing, peace and arbitration, education, household economics, citizenship, laws, professions and employment for women, national recreation, fine and applied arts, mental hygiene, conservation of natural resources and time. In the evening there will be a motor drive to Bowness. On Saturday, June 11, the delegates will be taken on a trip to Banff.

Open Meeting.
On Monday, June 13, the conference will open at 10 a. m. and after the usual routine business, there will be an address of welcome and address by the president, Mrs. Sandford, who will preside over the gathering. Annual reports will follow and reports of provincial vice-presidents.

The luncheon address, "Signs of the Times," will be given by the Hon. Mary Ellen Smith, M. L. A. In the afternoon an address on "Municipal Hospitals" will be given by Hon. Charles R. Mitchell, minister of public health, and an address on "Activities of the Red Cross," by Mrs. Waagen, Calgary, followed by the report of the standing committee on mental hygiene.

During the evening session a reference to the work of the I. C. W. will be made, and an address, "The International Council of Women at Christiana," by Miss C. E. Carmichael. An address on "Economic Problems of the Hour," will be given by Professor Swanson, Saskatchewan University.

Propaganda Week.
It is recommended that during each quinquennial period each national council appoint a week when propaganda for the I. C. W. shall be carried on by all national councils. This is proposed by the international council.

Amendments to By-Laws.
On Tuesday morning, June 14, suggested amendments to the by-laws will be discussed, and the luncheon address will be given by Mrs. Adam Shortt, who has chosen for her subject, "Mothers' Allowances."

In the afternoon Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, D. C. L., will report on the formation of girls' auxiliaries in the National Council of Women. Resolutions will be discussed, and in the evening there will be a conference of nationally organized societies.

On Wednesday, June 15, at the morning session there will be a report on marriage laws and the issuing of licenses, and a resolution from the Ontario Women Citizens' Association will be discussed. This resolution is as follows: "Resolved, that a special committee be formed to watch all important measures coming before Parliament, relating to women and children, and whose duty it would be to approach the government without delay."

Moving Pictures.
A report will be given by the standing committee on moving pictures and the following resolutions discussed:

"Resolved, that a standing committee on films be arranged for by the N. C. W. to carry on the ever-increasing work of vigilance and have a general supervision on account of the educational value of this important factor in our national life, and that the said committee furnish reports to the council from time to time."

"Resolved, that all matters, pertaining to moving pictures be referred to the standing committee on objectionable printed matter, thereby giving the creation of another standing committee."

On Wednesday evening there will be an address, "Canadian Art and the Canadian National Gallery," by Ernest Brown, Secy. director of the National Gallery.

Objectionable Literature.
At the Thursday morning session on June 16 the question of objectionable magazines will be discussed, including the resolution of the Halifax Local Council, as follows: "Resolved, that the National Council of Women go on record as opposing the entry into Canada of objectionable magazines calculated to injure the tastes and morals of the young."

The election of officers and standing committees will take place at this session and the luncheon address will be given by Judge Emily Murphy on "Some Phases of the Women's Platform."

A Woman Senator.
At the Thursday afternoon session a resolution proposed by the Ontario Women Citizens' Association will be discussed. The National Council of Women request that women be not appointed to the Senate.

A notice given by Mrs. Willoughby Cummings, D. C. L., regarding the extension of the women's dress will be considered as follows: "Resolved, that this National Council of Women again express itself as in accord with the pronouncement made by the churches in criticism of the present day extremes in women's attire."

On Thursday evening there will be a banquet.

The business of the meeting will be concluded on Friday morning, July 17, when a report will be given of the special committee on the criminal code and by the committee on soldiers' dependents. The place of the next annual meeting will be decided and the election of officers will be announced. The luncheon address will be given by Mrs. Jean Muldrew. The conference will close with an executive meeting on June 17.

NATIONAL I.O.D.E. TO MEET IN VANCOUVER

Next Year's Conference to Come to West; Jewelled Badges Opposed

Toronto, June 5.—Western members of the I. O. D. E. will have much satisfaction in the announcement that the next annual meeting of the Order will be held in Vancouver, B. C. This was decided at the closing session of the annual convention on Saturday.

Next year's convention will be the second held on the Pacific Coast, the previous gathering in the extreme West having been held in Victoria in 1917, during Mrs. A. E. Gooderham's regime as National President.

A resolution was passed deprecating the giving of presents to officers or members of the Order, except life membership, with a simple badge. The Provincial Chapter of Quebec took the ground that the money was required in connection with the work of the Order.

A suggestion that the order should foster the arts in Canada was approved by the convention.

TO PURSUE DRILLING OPERATIONS FOR OIL

Imperial Oil Company Will Continue to Work in Fort
Norman District

Drilling operations will be undertaken at Fort Norman by the Imperial Oil Company, Limited, for the purpose of definitely ascertaining whether or not oil will become available in appreciable commercial quantities, says C. O. Stillman, president of the company, who arrived in Vancouver Saturday accompanied by C. R. Ewing, director and general manager of refineries.

"Until we find an adequate supply of crude oil in Canada, the petroleum industry will be forced to depend upon outside sources," said Mr. Stillman, discussing the general oil situation in the Dominion. "We are importers from the United States, Mexico and South America, and these imports continue to bear the burden of an adverse and abnormal exchange situation, in addition to the higher cost of transportation and marketing. For years we have endeavored to overcome these disabilities by the prosecution of an energetic campaign for the development of a domestic supply of crude oil."

"In addition to the operations in the Mackenzie River territory, the results of which at best can not be regarded as a solution of the problem for many years, we have eleven or twelve wells drilling in Saskatchewan. So far as I know none of the other large companies have shown any disposition to risk their capital in testing this enormous area, but should any of our drilling encounters oil-bearing sands, drilling operations would quickly become general."

Petroleum Needed.
"There would, of course, be no event in the present history of the West which would promote the growth of the country more effectively than the discovery of petroleum in domestic quantities," continued Mr. Stillman. "We are carrying on this drilling campaign in the interests of our shareholders, but if we finally succeed we would neither hope nor expect to secure for ourselves more than a fractional amount of the indirect benefits. The impetus of immigration, to the investment of outside capital and to the value of everything that the West produces would be felt in every section of the country."

There has been a lessening in demand for these products of crude petroleum such as lubricants and fuel oil, which were largely used in industrial operations, admitted Mr. Stillman, but notwithstanding this fact his company had been able to retain as large a force of workers as when business was booming.

He incidentally announced that petroleum products used in British Columbia came largely from Peru and were therefore subjected to a very heavy transportation charge. The company had repeatedly endeavored to purchase petroleum products in the Eastern States for import into Canada, but could make no contracts along that line.

A GAMBLE IN BEAUTY

By NANCIBELLE HALE.
ONE LOVE STORY YOU NEVER CAN FORGET.

The Romance of Two Sisters, Both Beautiful, One Demure, the Other Vampish—With Thrills in Every Chapter and an Unexpected Denouement.

CHAPTER XIII.

When Varla woke she could not quite remember what had happened. Had it been a nightmare? That heavy dragging fear that had followed her through her dreams? She brushed the hair out of her eyes and looked across the room. It all came back to her, for she saw her pretty dress, tumbled on the floor, the sleeves grotesquely pulled away, her ribboned underthings sprawled on a chair. Nothing in its customary dainty order, that was as much a part of Varla's life as the delicacy of her body.

"This morning she had vowed to go away—she must pack—her little black bag—"

Propped on her elbow she looked about the room; there on the floor beneath her door she spotted a long white envelope. Had it been there the night before? What was it?

Hope, fear, longing, surged through her as she slipped out of bed and picked it up.

It bore no writing. It was long and thick and unsealed. She stole back into bed with it, shivering a little as the cold air struck her shoulders, unconscious of the physical sensation under this sudden wild hope.

Varla pulled out the sheets of rustling paper and looked at the black, careful writing that was as easy to read as print.

It began without salutation. I can't ask you to forgive me, Varla, but I do ask that you will read this letter through.

How I could have come to accuse you to-night of having charged all those clothes on my bill is incomprehensible to me now; my only excuse is that I was very tired. I have been worried lately, but that should not concern you.

The bills came addressed to my office, and you can understand it was only natural that looking over them hurriedly, I thought, of course, they were yours.

Now as I look back on the month we have been here together, I realize how careful you have been, how economical; for I was never able to get along like that when I lived with Jenkins in Gramercy Park. Trust you have been living on your own money. I can see it is the only possible thing.

You know, or perhaps you have learned to know, that I'm not very good at expressing myself. I have never told you how much your thoughtfulness has meant to me during these last weeks.

You have always been here ready to meet me with a smile, with your gentleness—the word somehow does not tell you what I mean.

It has been a hard, almost unendurable situation for us both. If you feel that you cannot stay here any longer, I cannot blame you.

But I do want you to know that I haven't gone scot free. I've been through hell. Varla, I know now that my physical suffering cannot be as bad to bear as this constant torture.

I am not going to try to keep you against your will, but if you will make up your mind to stay—it would mean a lot to me.

There is one thing that I'll have to be frank about—the agent says that we can't stay any longer in this apartment unless we buy it. I'm afraid that's not going to be possible; and I may have to ask you to go through all the discomforts of moving.

No one knows better than I what a difficult person I've been to live with—but I hope that's all over now, and I'm beginning to wake up to reality.

You ought to have a little time to think it over. I won't be home to-night to dinner, so that you won't have to solve the problem right away.

JOHN.

Varla hugged the letter to her heart in her first wild exultation. He understood! He understood!

She sprang out of bed and running into the bathroom turned on the water while she pulled out her bureau drawers and tossed out her daintiest lingerie. Her trousseau, swept to the side with the pink rosebuds and the scent packet.

"Mornin', Miss Amory," Sally Lou said, smiling, her big black hands on her white apron. "You certainly will excuse me, ma'am, but some persons rise up looking pretty as a rose and you am one of those persons!"

"You're a wicked flatterer, Sally Lou," Varla laughed, tossing back the hair that over her shoulders and showing her pretty little teeth.

"Yes'm," Sally Lou consented smilingly amiably. "You all like a nice bit of bacon and a pepper 'n' salt."

"I'm starved," Varla said, closing the door and beginning to dress swiftly.

The open pages of the letter lay on her dressing table as she brushed her hair, and she stopped dreamily a moment to look about her.

The face of the Madonna on the gray wall, faintly smiling, wistfully met her eyes, and Varla, leaning back, studied the delicate shadows about the mouth and eyes.

"Nothing's quite all happiness, nothing's quite all tears," the thought, "perhaps it isn't what comes to you, it's the way you meet it."

because Nina had been so wantonly selfish as to order all those things. "I can never forgive her," Varla thought, as bitterness grew in her heart.

She looked about her charming living room, at the sunlight that patterned her velvet rug and showed the Hawthorne bowls on her white mantel. She was seated on her favorite place, the curving window seat, and she knew she could never again have the same thrill in a little home of her own as in this one, in which she had suffered and grown and changed from the dreaming girl to the stronger woman.

The sun struck opal fire from the Hudson River, and Varla, puzzling over the bitterness that Nina had brought into her life, rose suddenly as the bell rang.

"If that's my sister, won't she see her," she said to Sally Lou.

As she stood trembling in her bedroom she heard the mellow tones of Sally Lou: "No'm, she ain't at home to-day."

The lacquer jewel case on her dressing table caught her eyes; she pulled out the drawers and emptied the contents in her two hands.

IMPRESSIVE PARADE IN MEMORIAM FOR FALLEN COMRADES

Victoria Joins in Paying Tribute to Illustrious Dead

Thousands yesterday witnessed the memorial parade and open air service in honor of those of all services in the Empire who gave their lives in action in the European war, and in the wars that preceded it. Similar parades and services were held throughout Canada in every city and town where returned men gathered. The Victoria parade of Army and Navy Veterans, supported by the Canadian Legion, was the most impressive of the series.

The parade was under the auspices of the returned men's organizations, and was chiefly arranged by the secretaries of these units under C. L. F. Money, secretary of the Army and Navy Veterans' Association. Large numbers of Army and Navy Veterans, Veterans of France and the Great War Veterans, with their aids and auxiliaries, marched in the parade. With a distinctive place in the parade, the cadets of the Royal College at Esquimalt, and the local division of the Boys' Naval Brigade, made an impressive showing.

An Impressive Showing.
The various units gathered at the Veterans of France quarters on Douglas Street at 1:30 o'clock yesterday, forming into four facing north. The parade was of an impressive length, and more than usual interest was attracted by the smart and efficient turn out of all units and ranks. Led by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, the parade marched in the following order: Band and pipers of Canadian Scottish Battalion, standards with White Ensign and Union Jack, disabled men in motor cars, Women's Auxiliaries, Next-of-Kin Associations, chapters of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, with their standards; Boys' Naval Brigade with band, contingent from the R. M. C. Cadets, Royal Naval College cadets, permanent force and other military units, Salvation Army band, Veterans of Royal Navy, and Veterans of Army and auxiliary forces of all wars of the Empire.

Route of March.
The parade mustered at 2 p.m. and marched off north on Douglas Street in column of route to Yates, east on Yates to Blanshard, south again on Blanshard to the Christ Church Cathedral grounds, where the memorial service was held. Crowds lined the streets on the line of march, and saluted the standards as they were carried passed in the midst of the serried ranks of marching service men. The whole sight was extremely impressive and one that fittingly commemorated the honor of those who gave their lives in action overseas in the various wars, campaigns and border struggles of the Empire.

The service at the Christ Church Cathedral grounds was short but impressive, with the bands assisting.

The last post was blown as a fitting reminder of the occasion of the commemoration. A special parade and service for Roman Catholics was held yesterday morning at St. Andrew's Cathedral, where Rev. Father Wood officiated. The last post was blown by two buglers from Work Point Barracks.

Collections were taken yesterday in aid of the relief funds, a substantial sum being realized for this purpose.

WHAT THE CLUBS ARE DOING

Plan Combined Picnic.
Arrangements are being made by the committees of the Kiwanis clubs of Vancouver, North Vancouver and West Vancouver for a picnic to be held at some popular seaside resort during the last week in July.

The three clubs will combine to make this function a success and a steamer will be chartered to convey the party to the spot chosen. Everything will be arranged on the grand scale as it is expected that more than 700 Kiwanians and their families will participate.

Miss Eva Miller, who has had charge of the Vancouver Rotary clinic school for the past year, has consented to take supervision of the camp the Rotary Club has established on a beautiful three-acre plot on Marine drive, just west of the ravine, one mile east of the wireless station, Point Grey.

The camp, which has been established at an expense of about $5,000, will have accommodation for twenty-eight children and will be ready for occupancy on July 1. Its purpose is to give children of poor families, who are obviously undernourished and who would obtain no summer outing, an opportunity of a month's holiday. These children will be selected by the Rotary clinic and already many applications have been received.

The camp will be operated during July and August only.

Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; Remarkable Recovery of Mrs. Church

Smiths Falls Ont.—"I suffered with falling of my organs, pains around my heart and in bowels and down my legs, neuralgia in my face and head, and that terrible sinking feeling. I felt that I could not live and would fix my house in order every night so there would be no trouble if I hopped off in the night. My husband went to the drugist to get the best remedy he had and he gave him Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and felt a lot better. I will always recommend the Vegetable Compound, and you can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. J. O. Church, Box 845, Smiths Falls, Ont.

THE CENSUS TAKING

Work Progressing: Estimates of City's Population Being Made.

The census taking in Victoria is proceeding satisfactorily, with a very few exceptions, reports W. G. Gaunce, Census Commissioner for Victoria. One of the thirty-three enumerators has almost completed his district, and all are working hard to get the necessary returns in at the earliest opportunity. Estimates of Victoria's population are now the popular subject of conversation and numerous friendly wagers are being made as to the exact showing which the census will make. In this connection, however, Mr. Gaunce reports that no results can be issued by his office when the census is completed. Ottawa reserves the privilege of giving out all information in this connection, and the entire returns will be published at the same time.

TEN-HOUR DAILY SUNSHINE HERE AIDS FRUIT CROP

General Berry Picking Next Week; Plan Co-operative Cannery on Mainland

Victoria had 304 hours 36 minutes of bright sunshine during May, an average of almost 10 hours daily, according to the crop report of the Department of Agriculture issued to-day. This has stimulated the growth of fruits.

The first ripe strawberries of the Marshall variety were picked at Gordon Head on May 26, says the report. Magsons and Paxtons are sizzling well. The warm weather of the last few days has brought the strawberry crop along in good shape. Picking should be general on early varieties in a week's time.

Weevil Damage Feared.

There is considerable strawberry weevil showing up, but prospects for a crop are good so far.

The rainfall for May which was above the average was of great benefit to the strawberry crop.

Strawling of the strawberry plantations is in general vogue at the present time. By the end of the week practically all patches will be strawed.

Big Mainland Crop.

On the lower Mainland weather conditions have been very favorable throughout the Fraser Valley for all farm activities. On top of last week's rain and a well-moistened soil, we have had excellent growing weather. Towards the end of the week there has been a day or two of hazy weather very suitable for planting out.

Strawberries are coming in and first shipments are being made from the District. Dependence upon weather the showing is excellent for a big crop, the fruit setting being exceptional and the fruit very uniform.

Bees Getting Busy.

Raspberries are also looking well. The bloom is coming on fast and the bees getting busy.

The opinion among the growers in the district appears strongly in support of the proposed co-operative cannery at Hatzie. The matter is now in the hands of the B. C. Berry Growers' Association. Plans are in hand this year to send berries by water to Hatzie from other districts on the river for shipment from that point.

NEW MAP OF SAANICH PENINSULA

A map of the Saanich Peninsula, in a compact form, and thoroughly up to date, is an asset which will be appreciated not only by realty men in the city and residents of Saanich and North Saanich, but by an extensive clientele. For eight months the work of gathering the data essential to accuracy has been in progress, and the Island Blueprint & Map Company is able now to announce its issuance in two forms to the public.

The Island Blueprint & Map Company, Sayward Building, have just published a new map of the Saanich Peninsula which is of interest to the general public.

The map comprises all North Saanich, South Saanich and Lake District, and as far south as the Victoria City Hall.

The outstanding feature of it is that all subdivisions are shown up to date, including the corrected subdivisions have been cancelled and reverted back to acreage.

The Island Blueprint & Map Company publishing it in two forms: one is a blueprint at a scale of 1,000 feet to one inch, on which each subdivision has its registered plan number indicated, and in the border are indexes for each district, so that if a person knows the plan number he can find from the index which section the subdivision is in. The other form is a small lithograph showing the subdivisions quite clearly and which is now on sale by all the chief stationery stores in the city.

DRAMATIC THEME OF MOTHER RIGHT

Woman's Eternal Strife Is Told in Royal Showing

It was announced to-day that Associated First National Pictures, Inc. would present the drama, eternal "Man-Woman-Marriage" at the Royal Victoria Theatre all this week, commencing to-day. This super-production is said to mark the last word in richness of presentation and investiture. That it will prove the screen sensation of 1921 is predicted by the leading motion picture critics. Some idea of the magnitude of the task of making this drama can be formed from the authoritative statement that over 400,000 feet of film went into its construction. Batteries of cameras were directed on some of the massive scenes, yet the completed film is in only nine reels. In other words, the film was boiled down to less than two per cent. of the total length "shot." This means that scene after scene of startling beauty and dramatic piety flashes on the screen in tense sequence. The action, or tempo, as the picture producers call it, is breath-taking in its effect. Dorothy Phillips, one of the few great emotional stars of the screen is starred in "Man-Woman-Marriage." It was produced by Allen Holubar, is presented by Albert A. Kaufman and released by Associated First National Pictures Inc. Sub-titled "The Love Woman" this intimate exposition of social rela-

He renders biology popular and finds romance in the Neolithic Age. As a personified beauty, Woman dances through the entire plot, passing gracefully from age to age and ever returning to the present to continue the plot's supreme purpose of entertainment. An excited world is revealed in the third period of the story society as it has developed (or descended) in social circles is pitilessly stripped to our view. Its pretensions and its masques are shown to be just what they are. Truth has never gone further than Holubar has taken it in this relentless disclosure of the passions and frolics of a world into which the steps of the Woman are directed by an ambitious, proud and faithless husband. The slavery of Woman to Man is shouted against with all the energy of a passionate soul, and that slavery is shown to be as complete and as humiliating as ever the bars of an Oriental harem, and interposed between Woman and her rightful development.

DOMINION PRESENTS DOUBLE ATTRACTION

Mary Miles Minter Will Appear in "The Little Clown"

The charm of Mary Miles Minter as a little daughter of the circus, the clever sub-titles by Avery Hopwood and the delightful atmosphere of life under the Big Top—all of these factors enter in to make "The Little Clown," now at the Dominion Theatre, one of the most delightful entertainments of the current screen year. "The Little Clown" is by Avery Hopwood, author of "Fair and Warmer," "The Gold Diggers" and a score of other famous comedy successes. Certainly this circus story is up to the best standard of Hopwood's work. He has mingled humor, pathos and human nature, with a whole menagerie of animals thrown in for good measure, to make a play that will appeal to all ages from six to sixty. Last night's quota of youngsters giggled themselves into perfect content over "Mr. Chico," the monkey, the camels, the elephants, and the bears, not to mention the antics of Miss Minter and Neely Edwards as clowns, and Jack Mulhall as the daring bareback rider. As far as the star herself is concerned, the role of Pat, the little circus girl, fits her to a "T." It has just that combination of humor, mischief and heart appeal that makes a perfect Minter vehicle. And after several productions in which her glorious hair has been hidden under black and brown "transformations," her local admirers welcomed the return of her own blonde curls. The supporting cast presents a number of popular players whose appearance will be welcomed. Helen Dunbar and Winter Hall are delightful as a dignified old Southern couple while Lura Anson and Zelma Maja did pleasing work. The camera work is well-done, for which credit belongs to Faxon Dean, who filmed "A Cumberland Romance," and is now Miss Minter's personal cameraman. Thomas Heffron directed the offering. If your sense of humor is ill, call at the Dominion Theatre for any performance and have it cured by Harold Lloyd, M.D. (Doctor of Mirth), who will massage it with laughter vibrations in "Now or Never," his first three-reel comedy, and the first under a new contract with Associated Exhibitors.

CLEVER CROOK PLAY BRINGS NEW BEAUTY

"The Wonderful Chance" Features Eugene O'Brien at Pantages

"The Wonderful Chance," Eugene O'Brien's latest Selznick Picture, which comes to Pantages to-day for a two-day run, is a crook play of the type made by Jimmy Valentino, "De Luxe Annie," "Kick In," etc., although the plot and story by H. H. Van Loan are among original lines. Eugene O'Brien, the leading role of "Swagger" Barlow, is a "Robin Hood" in the world of crooks. Fastidious in his personal appearance, and possessed of a sentiment usually foreign to crooks, Barlow is a strange anomaly among his pals. Marjath Mansfield, heralded as America's prettiest movie cover girl, plays opposite Mr. O'Brien as the girl in the case and a cast of sterling players under the capable direction of George Chalmers portray the various roles. Here is a summary of the plot: "Swagger" Barlow, a crook, after a three-year term in prison is released and vows that he will go straight in the future. His first call is on his pal "Red," who urges him to join in a expedition he had planned for that night. Barlow refuses and Red attempts the job alone but is shot by a watchman. "Red" manages to reach home where Barlow tries to help him but discovers a doctor's care imperative. As they have no money, Barlow burglarizes a house, but leaves a clue by setting a cat's paw. Haggerty, a detective, is called in on the case and by a process of deduction directs suspicion to Barlow. But as the evidence is not strong enough to warrant an arrest the detective is compelled to merely place Barlow under surveillance. "Red" recovers and Barlow tries the straight road. About the same time, Kingsby, a master crook, plans to kidnap Lord Birmingham, an English nobleman, and take his place in society long enough to make a big haul. The kidnapping takes place as planned and at the same time Barlow, to avoid meeting Haggerty, goes into the Ritz and is mistaken for Lord Birmingham by the clerk who hands him Birmingham's keys. Barlow accepts the chance and decides to see what will develop. Kingsby, dressed in Birmingham's clothes arrives on the scene but is shrewd enough to realize that some one has beaten him at his own game, so he bides his time. Barlow masquerading as the nobleman makes good his society and accepts an invitation to visit the country home of a Mrs. Winton, whose charming daughter, Peggy, is strongly attracted to him. Kingsby decides to rob the Winton mansion and has enlisted "Red" to aid him. He also warns Barlow that he must also help or be exposed. Barlow refuses to help and is determined to upset Kingsby's plans. "Red" is at the safe when he is discovered by Barlow. They are both surprised and "Red" relates to Barlow the story of Birmingham's kidnapping. The house has been alarmed and Barlow, to avoid having his old pal caught, aids him to escape. The following day "Red" and Barlow rescue the real Lord Birmingham and Barlow takes his place as Kingsby's prisoner. The substitution is unsuspected by all except Peggy, who is puzzled at the indefinite Barlow in the man she loves. Haggerty is investigating the attempted burglary when Kingsby brings Barlow there, thinking he is the real Lord Birmingham and determined to expose Barlow. Haggerty recognizes Barlow and wants to arrest him but Lord Birmingham intercedes and Haggerty only takes Kingsby into custody. Barlow has lost Peggy but he has found himself and he goes down the road determined to make good and return.

"GOING UP" TO BE CONTINUED

For Two Nights at Princess; "All the Comforts of a Home" Next

The next musical offering to be presented at the Princess is "All the Comforts of a Home," a clever comedy with some of the newest song hits interpolated. The management has endeavored to secure "The Time

The Place and The Girl," but as it is much in demand by musical stock companies in the East, they have been compelled to wait a week or so for the manuscript. However, there will be fun fast and furious in what is chosen, and the musical part of the programme can't be beaten, as Mr. Coots will sing some of the latest songs, as well as several "good old standbys," and all the clever comedy will be seen in songs and dances right up to the moment. Mr. Aldenn as a dashing old Don Juan as a part which gives him opportunity for some of his best work, and Miss Page, as the actress, will delight her many friends and admirers with another and different character study, also some charming gowns. Lee Jaxon, Jim Mullaly, Genevieve Berkeley and the dainty chorus are all helping the musical comedy at the Princess to shine.

To-day and Tuesday the Mildred Page Players will repeat the big show "Going Up," which was such a big success last week, so those of you who were disappointed on Saturday night will still have a chance to see this great musical comedy.

CLASSIC LEGEND IN MODERN DIALECT

Danae, or the Birth of Perseus Part I.

The main object in presenting this article is to place before the general readers some knowledge of mythology (the science treating of myths)—with which which present day literature is not so well understood, or appreciated—so that they can connect with a greater significance, and a clearer comprehension, as "musical as Apollo's lyre," the allusions contained in the old Greek legend "Danae," or the "Birth of Perseus," the experiment in the retelling of which in the dialect of the nineteenth century, is to be made here during the latter part of the present month.

Fanciful Adaptation
The presentation of this Pastoral, will be in the form of a fanciful adaptation of a part relating to the early infancy of Perseus, the child of Zeus, or Jupiter, in mythology the real monarch of the heavens and father of many of the gods and goddesses, Vulcan, Venus, Minerva, Apollo Mars, Diana, Mercury and Bacchus—and of Danae, the daughter of King Acrisius (A-cris-i-us) ruler of Argos, a city of Argolis in Southern Greece.

Now with the Greek people—fanciful and imaginative—poetry was felt to require delivery in song to be complete in expression, consequently poetry and music became intimately associated and both were held to be inspired by the Muses, the nine daughters of Jupiter, and Mnemosyne (Memory), who presided over song, and prompted the memory.

Appreciated Music
In the Greek theatres the choruses and dancers were of great importance, and many of the principal actors sang their lines to the accompaniment of music.

Cecil B. DeMille's "Forbidden Fruit" Romano

companion of the lyre. The drama was peculiarly prominent, widely popular, and a great social eminence. Festival contests, embodying music, literature and competitions in physical prowess, were regularly held in the most thickly populated centres throughout the country, which were attended by throngs of people. It will thus be seen how momentous became the subject of poetry—music, the poets were encouraged and made much of. They wrote as if inspired, and the mystical age has brought forth numerous and classified legends, epigrams, hymns, odes and elegies. How beautiful and charming they are throughout, and how wonderfully connected are they with literature and allusions, too, frequently made by poets, essayists, public speakers and lecturers of all time.

The Famous Poets
Most of these myths or legends, are derived from the writings of Ovid, 43 B. C., Virgil, 70 B. C., Homer 850 B. C., and Simonides called the Poets of Myths.

The latter was one of the most prolific of these early poets, but strange to say only a few detached portions of his compositions have descended to us the most important of which is the "Lamentation of Danae," the poetry being based upon the tradition that Danae and her infant son (Perseus) who grew up to be a famous hero of many wonderful adventures, were to be placed by order of her father Acrisius, in a chest and set adrift on the sea. The chest floated towards an island where both were rescued by a fisherman, named Dictys, and carried to the king of the country, who gladly received them. This incident together with the birth of Perseus is the theme in the translation of this Pastoral.

GEORGE J. DYKE.

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES

Washington Group
R. E. Lundvall, who arrived in Hyder a few weeks ago, and brought his assay outfit with him, has purchased McDougall's house on Cottonwood Avenue. Mr. Lundvall informed The Portland Canal News that it is his intention to this season do considerable work on his Washington group on the Marmot River. This group, consisting of seven claims, is situated seven miles from tidewater on the south fork, and was first staked by himself in June last year.

Last year's work consisted of thoroughly prospecting the ground, the putting in of eight open cuts and the driving of a 25-foot tunnel. It is the intention this year to continue this tunnel for some distance, or until such time as it crosses a big lead that shows on the surface. It is estimated that this lead will be tapped at about 100 feet from the end of the present tunnel, and if so will give 300 feet of back. To do this work it is Mr. Lundvall's intention to work a small crew of men all or most of the summer.

Mica Deposits

The renewal of the development of the mica deposits at Tete Jaune Cache by a Calgary company is of interest. These deposits have long been known, and shipments were made from them in 1898 and 1899, the dressed mica being taken out by pack train to Kamloops. Some of the mica brought $3 per pound. It is a muscovite of high quality save for a greenish cast. Canada produces about 900 tons of mica annually, most of which is exported to the United States, which is the world's largest consumer of mica.

Is a Rich Claim

A lot of ore taken from various sections of the deposit recently discovered by A. P. Clarke of which was sent to Victoria for assay, and the results are more encouraging than ever, and lead to the conclusion that this is a large deposit of exceptional value.

The sample sent in assayed 67.74 ounces in gold, and 12 ounces in silver, and this at $20 for gold, and 90c for silver, would represent a total value of $1,345.80 per ton of ore. In view of the proximity of this property to transportation, it is not hard to picture the possibilities when taken hold of and properly worked.

Big Missouri Looking Up
Andy Linderbourg has informed The Portland Canal News that his brother, Dan, is at present in Vancouver with a deal they have on for the Big Missouri. It appears that two very large mining concerns are interested and wish to acquire it. There is nothing definite, however, at this juncture, though Andy hopes to have some good news for the district when Dan returns, which he thinks will be about the end of the month.

Oil Shale Prospect
Thomas Howson, a mining and financial man who is well known in the Province, has just returned from the Queen Charlotte Islands where he is interested in an oil shale proposition. Mr. Howson, who was one of the first to take up this industry in the north, has decided to interest capital in the enterprise, so that operations may be gone on with on a large scale and opportunity be given to ascertain the undoubted wealth which the islands possess in the matter of obtaining petroleum by extraction from the oil bearing shale that is in such abundance in that locality. Mr. Howson, who is widely conversant with the matter, is most enthusiastic about the opportunities on the Queen Charlotte Islands where the shale carries a far larger percentage of oil than any place he has so far seen. He hopes to see a plant established on the islands, as the near future, and another profitable industry going in this part of the Province.

FARMERS TO SUFFER FROM LOW PRICES PREMIER DECLARES

Cream Price Cut to One-third,
He Finds in East; But Crops
Are Big

Canada is going to have big crops this year, but prices are going to be as low as it is hard to tell, says the premier. Mr. Bennett, who was at his desk early Monday after his six-weeks trip, which took him as far as Halifax, said that the farmer would get a promise of good crops as this year, said the premier. "The prairies never looked better to my eye, while in Ontario the early spring and mild weather with light rains has given a wonderful start to the young crops. There'll be splendid crops, but accidents. But prices? Well, I don't know what the farmer is going to do this year."

"I stayed with a farmer in Ontario who told me that six weeks before he had been shipping cream to Toronto at $22 a can. Then it dropped to $19, then to $17, then to $15, and so on until the day I stayed there he was getting only $7 a can for his cream. It dropped from $22 to $7 in six weeks."

"Butter is being shipped in from the farms for 20 cents a pound and milk is being sold on a basis of 22 cents a pound for the butterfat content. Wool has dropped down to 7 cents a pound and hides to 3 and 4 cents. I heard one man offer to let his wool go to anyone who would clip his sheep. Potatoes were being offered free to anyone who would take them away. It looks as if this is going to be a year of difficulty for the farmer."

Granted Naturalization.—Carleton W. Stocker, president and manager of the Relief and Assistance Society, was granted his Canadian naturalization papers this morning by Judge Lampman in County Court Chambers. Mr. Stocker was an American and has resided in this city for eight years. W. M. Ivel and M. Richardson spoke as to the applicant's character. E. H. McKinnon, formerly of Port Arthur, appeared for the applicant.

Action is Progressing.—The action of Clark versus the Harbor Marine, Ltd., et al was continued in the Supreme Court today by Mr. Justice Clement. Captain Stuart Clark, the plaintiff, is still on the witness stand, this morning being under cross-examination by Oscar W. Macdonald, counsel for one of the defendants. The action is continuing this afternoon. The evidence to-day was merely a re-statement of former evidence given in cross-examination last week.

St. Joseph's Alumnae.—The Alumnae Association of St. Joseph's Hospital met on Saturday afternoon for their annual meeting. The association, which is being followed by supper, served buffet fashion, in the hospital grounds. At seven o'clock the members assembled in the Hospital Chapel for the benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This was followed at 7.30 by an interesting programme in St. Ann's Academy, when D. T. Horvath, gave organ recital. The programme included violin solo and Miss Dorrell, vocal numbers. Dr. Barrett spoke to the nurses and introduced Rev. Father Deeney, S.J., of Seattle, who spoke at some length.

QUEBEC TREASURE DIGGERS AT WORK
Montreal, June 6.—A rumor that there is buried treasure on the banks of a little stream in Lachine, a suburb of this city, has resulted in a regular stampede of treasure-seekers besieging the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Treasure Hunting, which owns the property, for permission to dig up her ground. The digging is being done with the understanding that any treasure found is to be equally divided between the finder and Mrs. Wright. No inkling as to the source of the rumor or the nature of the treasure buried has been discovered.

NEW SECRETARY.
Ottawa, June 6.—Dr. C. D. Porter has resigned from the position of secretary of the Canadian Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, a position he has filled for the past fourteen years. Robert E. Wodehouse, O.B.E., formerly of Port Arthur, Ont., but now of Toronto, is announced as his successor.

HOLD UP CASE PROCEEDING IN ASSIZE COURT

R. G. Stinson, Held Up in January Last, on Witness Stand

After twenty out of a panel of twenty-nine had been challenged, and a further ten selected reduced to three, the petit jury at the Assizes was today selected for the trial of R. G. Stinson, charged with the holding up of a mail coach on January 1, 1920, near the Esquimalt wharf, when they were charged on two counts with holding up a mail coach and with violence and offensive weapons.

The jury consists of John Day (foreman), William Dudley, James Holyoak, W. H. Coates, Alfred Chadwick, William Dunderdale, R. T. Huxtable, W. A. Robertson, Harold Earle, E. P. Kay, J. Leask and A. J. Welsh. Sheriff Richards made two trips to the public gallery to complete the number of men for the remainder of the jury necessary, after the panel had been exhausted.

J. S. Brandon is acting for the Crown, the accused being defended by R. C. Lowe and J. A. Alkman. A preliminary trial was held this morning before Chief Justice Hunter after being adjourned from Thursday last.

EVANGELIST BEGINS TENT CAMPAIGN
The opening services of the tent campaign, corner of Pandora Avenue and Vancouver Street, were held yesterday with gratifying success. Rev. Dr. Rand Pierce, of Boston, Mass., was the morning speaker. He chose his text from the prophecy of Joel, "In the afternoon Rev. J. S. Parkins, of Everett, Wash., brought a helpful message. Mrs. Parkins rendered a solo.

A large congregation greeted Evangelist Pierce in the evening. He delivered a powerful discourse from Acts, fourth chapter, followed by a general service of prayer.

Preceding the sermon Rev. and Mrs. Pierce sang a duet with autoharp accompaniment. The services will continue each night, beginning promptly at 8 o'clock.

SPORTSMEN KILL HUNDRED CROWS

There are one hundred less crows in British Columbia than there were on Saturday, as a result of the activities of a number of Victoria sportsmen. Some ten sportsmen who, in the afternoon, spent their time shooting crows, visited Discovery Island yesterday and there massacred crows to the number of about one hundred. Members of the party said that they were a little late in starting the crow shoot and that if the affair had been held earlier in the year, there would have been more black victims. The Provincial Government recently placed a twenty-cent bounty on crows because the birds kill young chickens, eat grain and do other damage.

AUSTRALIAN
IMPORTS REDUCED
Washington, June 6.—(Canadian Press)—United States Trade Commissioner, A. W. Ferrin, in a cable relative to the conditions in Australia, reports that the exchange situation shows scarcely any appreciable improvement. While drafts are now being issued in favor of London to a limited extent, the banks are endeavoring to discourage importations and are calling in their loans. There have been a number of failures among minor concerns during the past month and two important concerns have been placed under receivership. The amount of currency in circulation amounts to $59,000,000, which is some $2,500,000 more than a year ago. The Government arranged to meet its bonds maturing in May by means of short term loans from the banks. The state of New South Wales borrowed $5,500,000 in London at 6 1/2 per cent.

CITIZENS DETERMINE WHETHER CITY IS TO BE DEAD OR ALIVE

Council Reflects Spirit of City, Says Gordon Scott; Lack of Interest

"The spirit of the people makes it possible for a city to be either dead or alive and that the spirit of a city is usually reflected by the City Council," declared Mr. Scott, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, in an address to the Gyro Club at noon today.

"The vital force in a community is not how many factors it has or what its physical advantages but what is the spirit of the city," declared Mr. Scott. "We ourselves have it within our power to make this a dead or a live city. Any city will be just what its citizens want it to be."

Mr. Scott considered the local Government a reflection of the spirit of the citizens. Good men do not receive support and are not asked to suffer the criticism that is levelled at them, he said.

"Look at the returns of your civic elections and you will find out just how many people are interested in this city," commented Mr. Scott. The speaker declared that a community could only make progress at the rate of its slowest citizen, and it was necessary if greater progress was wanted here to educate the slower one to speed up.

Mr. Scott did not think that Victoria was over-organized. The club all had the fundamental basis of service for the community, and none of their jobs over-lapped.

The speaker referred to the Memorial Avenue scheme, and while lots of people thought other projects would be worthier he thought it was a splendid thing to get at something that had been neglected. There had been about forty different proposals for memorials to the South African war heroes, but nothing was ever accomplished.

Mr. Francis entertained the Gyros with two delightful solos.

BRITISH OUTLOOK DECLARED DISMAL

The Government was prepared to make to ease the difficulties of the hour, but the speaker pointed out that it would not be prolonged more than two weeks. This offer, the letter said, had been made with considerable misgiving, owing to the severe burdens on other industries and the taxpayers and that two weeks should give the men sufficient time to ballot on the proposal to reach a settlement.

The announcement fell like a bombshell in the camp of the miners' executive. Its effect was indicated by the decision of the executive to adjourn the trial of the miners' case until the day after tomorrow, when the miners expressed it, "We may sleep on it and in a better frame of mind decide what action to take."

OBITUARY RECORD

The funeral of Gordon Birch Kelly, nineteen months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Keeler, of Cobble Hill, late of Victoria, was held at the funeral home of the Sanda Funeral Chapel at 2 o'clock. The Rev. F. A. F. Chalkley officiated. The casket was covered with flowers. Interment was made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

The death occurred at the residence, 1588 Rockland Avenue, on Saturday morning, June 4, John James Mitchell, brother of James E. Mitchell. The funeral will be held privately from the residence of the deceased on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The casket will be made in Ross Bay Cemetery.

The remains of the late Miss Mary Ann Aitman were laid at rest in the family plot at Ross Bay Cemetery this morning. Rev. Dr. Campbell officiated at the service at the B. C. Funeral Chapel at 11 o'clock. The casket was covered with flowers. The hymns sung were "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and "Nearer, My God, to Thee." The pallbearers were S. Nelson, J. Rutledge, J. McKay and J. McGregor.

DRIVING HOME THE WEDGE.
Yakima, June 6.—Erie J. Barnes, president of the Yakima baseball club, has wired President Louis H. Burrill of the Pacific International League that he has resigned the presidency following Burnett's operation of the Victoria team, who was suspended after the Donnybrook staged after Thursday's game. Barnes says he has never been officially notified of the ruling in regard to Blankenship and takes the stand that Burnett's transfer to Tacoma is arbitrary and illegal. Burnett has notified Barnes by wire that there will be a meeting of league directors in Tacoma tonight and that he will resign and appoint your successor. Barnes considers your proposed action entirely out of the province of the directors, and exclusively up to the Yakima baseball club. At a meeting of the Yakima directors last night Manager Raymond was ordered not to take his team to Tacoma.

ADVOCATES OVERSEAS REPRESENTATIVES IN CAPITAL OF EMPIRE

House I always say. Well, it is your own fault—you made it. The House commands respect because of its fairness, consideration of minorities, and uncorrupted administration. It has faults, no one knows that better than I. But it is not for that that we are here to reveal them all to you. They are the faults of the people of Britain and of the British race generally—lack of preparation, want of great and economy, a haphazard way of doing things and a way of putting things off. I maintain that these faults are easily corrected by the great spirit of the House.

"I believe that people in the Dominions are apt to look upon Britain as a slow mover. Well, motion is by itself a better thing. If you are moving toward a precipice, the slower you move the better. In other words, destination is more important than speed."

"Disinclination to Work!"
"Matters, I think, have advanced very considerably during the forty years I have been in the House, and I can see just where we lag behind you. We have almost universal suffrage; you have a lady in our House as you have; a big national debt as you have; our government railways are in difficulties as yours are; there is a wide disinclination to work as there is here."

Passing over many matters in which England had progressed, Mr. Lowther pointed out that the problem of Empire relationships had occupied the British House of Commons for half a century. He recalled the movement among British statesmen to separate Britain entirely from its dominions and colonies. Indeed, Lord Derby, he said, told him that neither Britain nor the dominions would suffer if they were separated entirely.

"Just put that in just a position to the feeling to-day," he exclaimed. "I cannot speak for you, but for the Old Country, I would say that any such separation—indeed any weakening of the present bonds—would be a terrible thing. I think Beaconsfield just conceived the idea of the greatness of the Empire, and his work was carried on by Joseph Chamberlain—work which was completed by the way through which we passed together."

The speaker outlined the various "Colonial conferences" held in the past, and declared that the Imperial War Cabinet had administered its purpose in the war. It had been suggested, he pointed out, that this cabinet should be called a peace cabinet and continued.

Value of Conference.
"To me, it seems desirable that the Prime Minister and the members of the Dominion Governments, should be in pretty frequent touch—I will not say continual touch—but in touch with the 'other side of the home,' he proceeded. "You know and I know that if we can take difficulties when they first arise we are much more likely to get them around them than if we allow them to grow and grow to a point where it is difficult to deal with them."

"If we have re-opened conferences between representatives of the Dominions with the Cabinet Ministers in Britain a good many troubles and misunderstandings, which are shaped, discussed, considered which would be hard to tackle and smooth out if they were left to go unconsidered."

"One thing, it seems to me, is essential. The proposals in this matter must come from the Dominions. From the British side, it must be the last thing the Mother Country wishes to do—or could do if she wished to do so—would be to impose any such conditions upon the dominions. But if the Dominions are prepared to suggest anything of that kind I feel confident that the people of the Mother Country will welcome such proposals with open arms. There was a time when we have talked a great deal about Imperial Federation, but it was not until the Imperial House of Commons where representatives of all the Dominions would sit, this representation, being in proportion to population."

"It is a noble and fine idea that representatives of all the Empire should sit together and discuss the affairs of the Empire, but I am afraid that it has been shown to be only a dream, not a possibility. I think distances and too great a number of nations would make it impossible to do so. I think that the Canadian people would be sitting on a parliament so far away as London. Again, if this parliament were made up in accordance with the population of the various nations of the Empire, difficulties would arise. India with its huge population—people who, after all are as much citizens as we are—or I would undoubtedly swamp all the rest. No, it's not possible or practical, but I think it still remains for us to consider how the situation is to be solved."

A Great Change.
"I think you realize here, but I do not think it is so well appreciated at home, that the situation to-day is different from the situation of a few years ago. Canada ratified the Treaty of Versailles as a separate nation. Canada is, therefore, a separate nation—a nation within the Empire, no doubt, but still a separate nation. If Canada had refused to ratify that Treaty the position would have been that Britain, Australia and other Dominions would have agreed to it, with Canada not agreed to it. I think we at home have not given sufficient consideration to that fact but it must be considered and some solution found."

"The best solution in the immediate future I conceive to be the presence in London of representatives of Canada and the other Dominions for purposes of consultation. I don't say that the policy of the Imperial War Cabinet, but we are much more likely to get similarity of legislation, much more likely to avoid snags and troubles as a result of this representation in London."

"In closing I can only say how rejoiced I am to find that the bonds that bind us together are still as sound and as strong as ever, and can only express my hope that these bonds not only will not be severed but will never be even weakened. There is no doubt that we must be careful before we tinker to amend what we already have. A thousand years scarce serve to found a state—a year may lay it in the dust."

some of us lived in England." Premier Hon. John Oliver assured Mr. Lowther, expressing the Club's thanks to him.

"This speech will carry with it many memories and I hope that the suggestions made by the speaker may be carried into effect," said W. J. Bowser, K. C., Leader of the Opposition, in concluding the vote of thanks. Mr. Nicholas, on behalf of the Club, welcomed Tom Moore, President of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, who attended the luncheon.

MEIGHEN WOULD HAVE EMPIRE MARK TIME IN MILITARY AFFAIRS

Businesslike.
Mr. Meighen plans to make his trip brief and businesslike. Thus, although for the past month his office has been almost flooded by cablegrams requesting his presence at social functions that play so large a part in British political life, he has thus far accepted but three invitations, including one at which will be conferred on him the freedom of the City of London. Mr. Meighen's attitude is that with scores of problems of government at home, ranging from Cabinet reorganization to the ever-present railway problem, he has no time to give to social pleasures, but must return to Canada at the earliest possible date.

In Belfast.
London, June 6.—The Premier of Ulster and his Government will invite the Dominion Ministers to the opening of the new Parliament of Ulster June 22—it is hoped that most, if not all of them will be able to cross to Belfast from London, where they will be attending the conference of Empire Prime Ministers.

To Buy Building.
London, June 6.—Negotiations are to be opened during the sessions of the conference of Empire Prime Ministers for the purchase by the Canadian Government of the famous Devonshire House in the heart of Mayfair. It is understood in political circles here. The purpose of the projected purchase is to provide a headquarters for the Dominion Government in the British capital.

COMMON SCHOOL FIRST, PREMIER REPLIES

Dr. Griggs, chairman of the Kiwanis University committee, leading the delegation, was introduced by the Hon. J. W. de B. Farris, Attorney-General.

"We wish to show that we have a large sentiment behind us to back up anything we are doing," said Dr. Griggs. "We are helping out the University."

He told of an investigation of University conditions when it was found that space was cramped and because of overcrowding professors had to repeat their lectures over and over again. This meant inefficiency and loss of time and money.

Because of these conditions the Kiwanis Club has taken up the matter, Dr. Griggs said. He explained that original estimates for the University called for a $3,000,000 expenditure. The plan now being considered is to build a new building, which would be a great benefit to the University, as they would be the more anxious to get the most out of their work at the University.

"We are here to try to help you finance the building of the University as we realize the benefit it would be to the Province as a whole," he went on.

Only Temporary Strain.
M. A. Macdonald, M. P. P., said that the delegation had behind them a considerable body of public opinion.

"Any strain on the funds of the Province for completing the University would only be a temporary strain as you have the 3,000 acres at Point Grey set aside for this purpose," said Major D. A. Macdonald, K. C., of the Vancouver-Kiwanis Club.

"It is the most modest scheme that one could endorse. The members of the Government if they stretch a point and support this will go down in history as having done a very important thing."

Second in Canada.
A. G. Smith, of the Kiwanis Club, of Victoria, said that the B. C. University is second in the University of Toronto in Canada in the number of students. He pointed this out as a splendid record for B. C. Not to be able to carry out its system of education, would seriously harm the standing of the Province, he declared.

Chances For Own Boys and Girls.
F. L. Murdall, of the Vancouver Board of Trade, declared that the Board was behind the move to get the University completely built by 1923.

B. E. Walker, of the Electric Club, said that unless the B. C. University was completed, the Province may be turning away young talent.

He presented a resolution endorsing the University proposal from the Electrical Club, composed of electrical engineers and representatives of all electrical concerns.

100 Percenters in Line

Retail merchants of this Province are unhesitatingly behind this move, said George Houghton, of the B. C. Retail Merchants' Association, who hoped a chair of commerce would soon be introduced in the University.

Dr. Mahan, of the 100 Per Cent Club, declared that it is not a matter to be argued about but merely the question as to the means of doing it. He told of the unanimous support of the 100 Per Cent Club.

Exhibit of Work.
On account of the fact that it was found impossible to have the work from the Red Cross Workshop displayed at the Express Taxi Stand, but by kind permission of Mr. Hargroves, manager of the Bank of Commerce, the store next the bank, 1015 Government Street, has been loaned for the campaign week and the work will be displayed there. Orders will be taken for all of the articles on view. Memberships will also be sold there. The following ladies will be in charge: Mrs. J. A. Montiel, Miss Inez Bodwell, Miss Daphne Brougham, Vancouver; Mrs. D. V. Rochford, Miss Gladys Irving.

At the express Hotel Miss Pootney is being assisted by Mrs. J. A. Montiel, Miss Inez Bodwell, Miss Vivian Combe and many visitors signified their sympathy with the peace time programme of the Red Cross by being members. Many new members were also enrolled at the noon hour from among the host of visitors to the Canadian Club luncheon at the Hotel. Miss James Lowther was the speaker.

Miss Cassidy has been authorized to collect during the Red Cross campaign.

All Credited to Victoria.
On behalf of the B. C. Provincial Division as well as the Victoria City and District Branch of the Red Cross Society wishes to make it quite clear that the advertising in the Victoria papers, as well as the letters mailed to residents all over the Province, were arranged through one central agency. This explains the reference to the Provincial Division office.

All membership fees and special subscriptions from this District will be credited to the Victoria Branch and used for local Red Cross work. The local district as published in the press or in the District Headquarters, Room 117 Belmont House.

For Special Causes.
All membership fees are credited to the general fund for local Red Cross work, but special subscriptions in addition to membership fees will be thankfully received and may, if desired, be earmarked for special Red Cross objects such as the crippled soldiers' workshop, supplies for soldier patients, relief of soldiers' families in need through illness, or the Society's public health crusade.

States alleging that "unemployed persons took charge of proceedings at Parliament House and refused to be quiet until the Leader of the Opposition (Sir Michael Cashin) promised the 'hungry men' a free meal. No such incident ever took place, he says, but an obviously political demonstration was staged by Opposition supporters and their leaders were afterwards arrested and put in prison."

"While it is true that to some extent Newfoundland has shared in the general world depression," he says, "trade conditions here in comparison with other sections of the British Empire have been very satisfactory. An American papermaker, union at Grand Falls, went on strike, and under instructions from headquarters in the United States, the result is that 2,000 Newfoundlanders who are not interested in this organization and its affairs and who are anxious to continue work have been thrown out of employment. The same situation appears in connection with the miners' strike in St. John's. All the St. John's newspapers except one, which is practically a non-union shop, have been closed down through a strike order issued from headquarters of the Typographical Union in the United States."

Juggling.
Incidents which would indicate lack of employment in St. John's are laid at the door of a "political organization which has been developed by the Opposition among the laboring classes." "Unemployment here is a matter for politicians to juggle with rather than for the economist to worry over," says Dr. Modell. "As a matter of fact the demand for St. John's is greater than the supply."

"The main cause of the financial stringency in Newfoundland," according to Dr. Modell, "has been the policy adopted toward Newfoundland trade by banking institutions, which are all Canadian. These banks have attempted to apply in Newfoundland the same policy as they have adopted in Canada, with unfortunate results. In as much as Newfoundland industries, particularly coal-mining require long term accommodation."

"Light Refreshments."
Mr. Geo. A. Phillips has erected a bungalow at the river for the purpose of serving ice cream and gasoline to the motorists—Bradford Williams.

Do You Know "SALADA" GREEN TEA

"HALF-DRESSED DOLLS" CONDEMNED

London, Ont., June 6.—"The frivolous powdered, painted, half-dressed dolls to be found in large numbers on the city streets in Canada came in for denunciation by Mrs. Dr. D. R. McKennie, of Japan, at a missionary mass meeting here. It was foolish, she pointed out, for Canada to send missionaries to Japan when women there would be arrested if they appeared on the streets garbed as women and girls do in this country. "Away with these devilish will-o'-the-wisps," she concluded.

BATSMEN HAD FINE TIME WITH BOWLERS

Victoria and Incogs Ran Up Big Scores; Five C's Double Score on A. & N.

Heavy hitting featured the work of two of the leading cricket teams in Saturday's matches, Victoria scoring 237 runs off the Albion bowlers, while the Incogs declared their innings at 182 for three wickets.

The matches went off as expected, the teams in the upper half of the league standing winning easily from the second half. All matches were won handily, while the Five C's only scored 73 in their innings they doubled the score of their opponents, the Army and Navy.

Victoria had a great afternoon at bat at the table grounds. Their players were in top form and had the largest innings of the season. Coley went along hitting freely for a 75, and Jack Matson followed with a 75. The Victoria bowlers had the ball hopping to their will, and the Garrison batsmen were unable to run their score very far. Sholto Gillespie was the most effective of the Victoria bowlers, while the Incogs were the pick of the totties.

The Incogs started in to collect runs very quickly, and found the Willows pitch much to their liking. With three wickets down they declared. Goodday was the leading batsman, getting a 70 not out. Had the Albion fielders not been guilty of several muffs the Incogs would not have gone along so merrily.

The bad condition of the pitch at Beacon Hill was responsible for the low scoring in the Five C's game between the Army and Navy.

The scores were as follows:

STOCKS SELL OFF IN NEW YORK

(By Burdick Brothers, Ltd.)

New York, June 6.—Stocks were sold from the outset this morning and selling was especially noticeable in the rail group. C. P. R. and Union Pacific were subject to extreme pressure. The sugar interests were also extremely weak and much selling was witnessed. Continued action in the money market and the prospect of unfavorable dividend action by important companies in the near future are influences which are probably checking the buying power at the present time.

COBBLE HILL EVENT WAS A SUCCESS

Cobble Hill, June 6.—The First Company of Cobble Hill Girl Guides gave their second performance of "Cinderella" in the new Community Hall. The programme commenced with a concert by the Girl Guides, the first item being the Guide song by the First Cobble Hill Girl Guides, followed by a sword dance by Guide Baxter. Other numbers were: Song, "Chick, Chick," by Guides Stella Boulding and B. Chapman; Sailors' Hornpipes, by Guides M. Robinson, R. Barry, B. Slade and J. Simpson; song, "I Don't Want to Play in Your Yard," by Guides M. Chapman, R. Barry, I. Walton and C. Bonner; Irish Jig, by Guides L. Walton and C. Bonner; Highland Fling, by Guide M. Baxter; "The Flag," by First Cobble Hill Guides.

During a ten-minute interval announcement was made that the official opening of the new Community Hall would take place June 10.

The cast of "Cinderella" was: Cinderella, Mary Robinson; Cinderella's stepmother, Evelyn Adami; Cinderella's stepfather, Constance Bonner; Charles Bonner; Prince Charming, Annie Boulding; fairy godmother, Ivy Walton; herald, Burnice Chapman; lords and ladies, Peggy Slade, Rosie Barry, Stella Boulding, Ivy Walton, Jessie Simpson and Marian Baxter.

The guides who took part in the play had gained a lot of confidence since their last performance, and the Brownies dressed as fairies were an added charm.

The orchestra for the performance was composed of Mrs. Morton, Duncan, cello; Mr. McDonald, violin; Pompey Garret, drum, and pianists, Mrs. McDonald and Miss Melrose. Supper was served upstairs.

The Martin orchestra from Duncan played for the dance, which lasted till one o'clock. The takings amounted to nearly $150.

NEWS AND NOTES FROM SAYWARD DISTRICT

The Sayward Farmers' Institute held its annual picnic on "Empire Day" May 24. The weather was perfect, and the residents were out in full force. A full programme of sports was provided, and each event was keenly contested. The spike driving contest for ladies showed that Sayward has some hard hitters. The football match between the married men and bachelors showed that the latter were not in the married men's class, as also did the tug-of-war. The children spent a busy day and enjoyed taking part in the sports that were provided for them. Tea was served at 5 o'clock, and the day's celebration was brought to a close with a dance. Great credit is due to Arthur Henry who had charge of the sports, in the able manner that he carried out the programme, which contained some twenty-two events.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smallwood and daughter have been spending several days here looking over the valley with a view to locating here. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Armishaw. Before leaving they expressed their selves as being well pleased with the valley but were surprised to find that the two bridges, over the Salmon and White Rivers had not been repaired. The Smallwoods have returned to their home in North Vancouver.

P. H. McPhillips, financial man of Vancouver, is spending several days in the valley, the guest of J. E. Armishaw, J. P.

Several Japanese have invaded the valley in search of barberry bark. The residents look upon their coming with suspicion.

There has been high water in the river for the past two weeks. This is the first time for four years, but it has been a great help to the settlers who are clearing their lands, as it has enabled them to get their logs down to tidal waters.

The weather for the past two weeks has been perfect, growing weather, and planting is about finished in the valley and many of the settlers are now turning their attention to land clearing.

Mr. H. A. McDonald, Government road foreman, has a gang of men repairing the roads.

A public meeting was called for June 4, at 2 p. m., by the health centre committee, when Mrs. A. Brown, Sayward's delegate to the Child's Welfare convention recently held in Victoria, gave an address on Child Welfare, and gave in her report of the convention.

Band Contest. The Cumberland City Band has settled down to regular practice, and has entered for the Band Contest for the Island bands which is to be held at Ladysmith on Saturday, July 2. This band is now practicing three hours on five nights a week.

In all there are four contests, as follows: First—Selection, open to all amateur bands on the Island.

Second—Overture, open to all amateur bands on the Island.

Third—Overture, confined to military bands on the Island.

Fourth—March, open to all amateur bands on the Island.

Masonic Parade.

Cumberland—The annual church parade of officers and members of Cumberland Lodge No. 26, A. F. & A. M., will be held at Holy Trinity Church on the evening of Sunday, June 12. This is a week earlier than usual, but is occasioned by the fact that the Grand Lodge of British Columbia will be in session during the week of June 20, and many members of the local lodges will be in attendance at Victoria.

Nanaimo—In response to a telegram which was forwarded to J. C. McIntosh, M.P., regarding a further grant by the Dominion Government for the Soldiers' Better Housing Scheme in this Province, the following communication has been received by Mrs. F. L. Reynolds, secretary of the Nanaimo branch of the Local Council of Women:

Mrs. Pearl Reynolds.

Secty. Council of Women, Nanaimo, B. C.

Dear Mrs. Reynolds:—I have your wire of the 15th inst., regarding further loan for B. C. soldiers' housing scheme. This matter has been before the Committee for a considerable length of time but the financial condition of the country will not, I think permit much further sums to be used for this purpose. There may, however, be something in the supplementary estimates and I will use all the influence I possess in endeavor to have money provided for this purpose.

Yours faithfully,

J. C. MCINTOSH.

P. S.—The committee report has just been tabled which recommends further sums for housing scheme.

J. C. McI.

Meet Minister.

Coombs—Two hundred farmers attended a meeting at Coombs recently to meet the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture, and the Rev. J. H. McPherson.

Their petition is that the Government should take over 1,400 acres of land in the Coombs district from a real estate firm for the purpose of a settlement scheme. It is understood that the land can be obtained at a reasonable price and that it is accessible and fairly well furnished with roads.

Mr. Barrow listened to the petition and promised that the matter should have his consideration.

Hold Reception.

Nanaimo—Mr. and Mrs. Laocque, Grace Street, Friday night held a reception in honor of Mr. Wm. Hamilton and bride, nee Miss Barbara Fox, who returned yesterday from their honeymoon trip to the Kootenay Valley. Coupled with the event was the entertaining of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Forbes, who are now in excellent condition. The large holes that existed recently have been filled in and the larger cars have no difficulty in making this trip. Comm. Argus.

Provincial Police Changes.

Courtesy—Three of the Provincial police posts in the district have been changed this week, says The Comox Argus.

Mr. R. Dawley, whose headquarters have been at Courtenay, leaves the force this week. For the year and a half that Mr. Dawley has served the Provincial Government since his return from the force he has been a most efficient police officer and has carried out his duties well. He is to be succeeded here by Constable Bell, who has been transferred from Milport 50 on the old Cariboo Road.

At Cumberland, Provincial Constable C. E. L. Agassiz has been transferred to Sidney, B. C. Constable Agassiz has served at Cumberland for a few months only Sidney has been the post he desired since he entered the Provincial Government's service, as his son, a married daughter, live in Victoria. For over twelve years Mr. Agassiz filled the position of the British Vice Consul at Tacoma and in recognition of the valuable services he rendered during the war he has recently received a commendatory letter from the Foreign Office in London, enclosing a cheque for two hundred pounds, and has been informed that it is the intention of the Foreign Office to present him with an engraved testimonial of the appreciation of his services. He left for his new post to-day (Thursday).

Constable Dunbar, who is now at Sidney, is to take Constable Agassiz's place.

The third change is at Campbell River, where Constable Williams has been transferred to a position on the Mainland.

they can place absolute confidence in its purity and its unvarying high quality. If you pour just a little Eno into the palm of your hand and examine the fine, snowy-white powder closely, you can see how clean and pure it is. But when you let this powder fall gradually in a glass of water, transforming it into a sparkling Health Drink of crystal clearness—and then drink it—you realize at once why Eno is so different from ordinary salines. Medical men use and recommend Eno because they know its merits.

Quatsino—The Evergreen Farmers' Institute, San Jose Bay, is appealing to the Dominion Government for a renewal of the mail subsidy for the Canadian Pacific steamship service to Holberg. A resolution, "Resolved that this Institute views with the greatest alarm the abandonment of the mail subsidy to the C. P. S. Co. for Holberg. Not only does this action double the freight charges to Holberg but prohibits the importation of live stock as well as heavy and bulky freight to the detriment of the development of the San Jose valley and putting

HEARTBURN LIVER TROUBLE

When the liver becomes torpid and inflamed, it cannot furnish sufficient bile to the bowels, thus causing them to become constipated.

The stomach is also affected. In the case of heartburn there is a gnawing and burning pain in the stomach, attended by disturbed appetite, caused by great acidity. Whenever too much food is taken, it is liable to ferment, and become extremely sour, vomiting often occurs, and what is thrown up, is sour and sometimes bitter.

Other liver trouble symptoms are pain under the right shoulder, yellowness of the skin and eyes, floating specks before the eyes, coated tongue, bad taste in the morning, foul breath, water brash, jaundice, constipation, etc.

Keep your liver active by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills and you will have no heartburn or other liver troubles. Being purely vegetable they do not grip, weaken or sicken like the old-fashioned purgatives generally do.

Mrs. Mary Strong, Glanville, Sask., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and they have cleared me of heartburn and liver trouble. I don't think they can be beaten by any other medicine, and I can highly recommend them."

MR. FLETCHER IS SENIOR INSPECTOR

Remarkable Record of Victoria's Post Office Inspector

In a special article in "The Vancouver World" Saturday on the mail service of British Columbia, reference is made to Post Office Inspector Fletcher in the following terms: "Mr. Everard Hyde Fletcher, dean of the post office inspectors in Canada, is celebrating his 53rd anniversary of service for the government to-day. He is in charge of the inspectors' department at the Victoria office and is receiving congratulations as being the oldest man in the service in Canada. Besides being the oldest servant he has been a post office inspector since July 1, 1868. Born in the Province of Quebec, May 8, 1831, Mr. Fletcher is still hale and hearty. He is a very spry gentleman and still makes his annual trip of inspection to Prince Rupert and the Yukon. His territory includes Vancouver Island, the coast north to Prince Rupert and the Yukon."

Mr. Fletcher joined the civil service on June 4, 1868. Most of his time has been spent in this province and from 1897-98, before the railway mail service was created, he was the supreme "boss" of B. C. as far as mail delivery was concerned. He is a very quiet man and will tell very little about himself and his early experiences, which were numerous to say the least. From F. J. Murray, post office inspector in Vancouver, The "World" reporter learned some of these facts.

"When Mr. Fletcher joined the service there was no railroad in the province, and all the travelling had to be done by stage, horseback and canoe. The old route was up the Fraser River to Hope and then by stage to Barkerville. From there he took the Deasney trail to Fort Steele, part of the way going through the States."

FIVE MEMBERS ON SICK LIST ARE OVER EIGHTY YEARS OF AGE

At the meeting of this Lodge on Monday evening there was a large attendance and a very interesting programme was carried out. The first degree was conferred on two young members in a very efficient manner. The following officers were elected for the term commencing on July 1 next: W. G. Young, N.G.; A. Sedgley, V.G.; Fred Davey, secretary; and W. J. Barker, P.O. treasurer.

The following were appointed to see that the Lodge was properly represented in the competitive sports to be held at the annual reunion picnic at Port Angeles on July 1 next: Bro. E. L. Yee, relay race; Bro. R. Livingstone, P.O., tug-of-war; Bro. W. G. Young, baseball match.

An interesting event was the presentation of a 25-year Veteran Jewel by Bro. Fred Davey, Grand Secretary, on behalf of Regina Lodge No. 6, Regina, Saskatchewan, to Bro. W. E. Niblock, a member of that Lodge but a resident of this City. The following inscription was engraved on the back of the jewel: "Presented to Bro. W. E. Niblock by Regina Lodge No. 6, I. O. O. F., 1896-1921, Saskatchewan No. 11." Bro. Niblock suitably responded after having been accorded musical honors.

Eight other similar jewels were to be presented in Regina Lodge the same evening.

The sick list of Victoria Lodge at the present time comprises one member 85 years of age, who has been a member of the Lodge for 55 years; one 84 years old, with 53 years membership; one 91 years old, with 45 years' membership; one 88 years old, with 47 years' membership; one 86 years old, with 43 years' membership; one 65 years old, with 34 years' membership; and one 71 years old, with 17 years' membership. This record will be hard to beat.

These old and feeble brothers are visited, one by one, and conditionally reported each meeting, and the benefits to which they are entitled, regularly voted. And this work has been going on in this Lodge incessantly since the winter of 1904, for the past 17 years, by zealous brothers, without any remuneration whatever. This Lodge has 230 members, most of them residing in the city, and an appeal is made to them to come to the meetings and help in this benevolent work, which brings its own reward. This evening a candidate will be initiated into the mysteries of the Order.

PROMINENT G. W. V. A. MAN TO SPEAK HERE

Fraternal Delegate David Loughman, of the Dominion Command of the Great War Veterans' Association will visit Victoria early this week, according to word received here last week. For the past few days he has been attending the Provincial convention of the association in Chilliwack. On Tuesday evening he will address all members and ex-members of the local branch of the G. W. V. A. in the association's rooms on Fort Street at 8 o'clock in the evening.
